IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Terms & Conditions

Deposit Required:

25% Deposit required at the time of booking.

Balance is due 65 days prior to the tour departure date

Cancellation:

Up to 60 days before departure: refund less 25% official tour price.

Between 59 and 30 days: refund less 50% of the total.

Less than 30 days: No refund, 100% of the total is payable.

Since these are international terms an additional 5 days will be added in order to process refunds.

An additional 15% Administrative fee will be charged from Palace Tours against refunds.

All cancellation, change, or update requests must be submitted in writing by email to travel@palacetours.com. Please allow at least 48 hours (and in some cases longer) for us to review, confirm, and process the request and advise any applicable fees. A cancellation, change, or update takes effect only once we have received and processed the request, and we will confirm the outcome to you once it has been processed. Cancellation timeframes and the applicable fee are calculated by reference to the local time and normal business hours at the destination where the tour is provided; a request received outside those business hours (including evenings, weekends, and public holidays at the destination) is treated as received on the next business day at the destination, and a further processing period of at least 48 hours (and in some cases longer) then applies before the request takes effect.

The above times are based on Spain time. In order to provide enough time for processing cancellation, guests need to add 3 business days to the above timeframes. An administration fee of 15% on any monies paid by the client will be charged prior to refund.

COMMON QUESTIONS

Frequently Asked Questions

What is included in the Routes of Spain Madrid and Andalusia package?

> The package includes an arrival transfer in Madrid, 8 nights of hotel accommodation with daily breakfast, train tickets with assigned seats from Madrid to Malaga, Seville, Cordoba and back to Madrid, and hop-on hop-off bus tickets in Madrid, Seville and Malaga. It is designed for independent travellers who want the logistics handled.

Is the Madrid and Andalusia package a guided tour?

> No, it is an independent travel package rather than a guided group tour. We book inspected hotels in good locations, the trains between cities and your arrival transfer, and you build your own program. Optional excursions and discounted city tours can be added if you want guided days.

What is the route and how many nights are spent in each city?

> The route runs Madrid (2 nights), Malaga on the Costa del Sol (2 nights), Seville (3 nights) and Cordoba (1 night), before a final train back to Madrid on day 9. Every city change is made by train with assigned seats.

What is the difference between Deluxe and Luxury class on the Madrid and Andalusia package?

> Both classes include 8 nights with breakfast, assigned-seat train tickets and hop-on hop-off bus tickets in Madrid, Seville and Malaga. Luxury class adds upgraded hotels in every city and first class train tickets between the cities.

How much does the Madrid, Malaga, Seville and Cordoba package cost?

> Fares start from EUR 1,450 per person sharing a double room in Deluxe class. The price depends on your departure date and class, and the exact fare for each departure is shown on this page. Single occupancy is available at a higher fare.

Is there an airport transfer when I arrive in Madrid?

> Yes. We pick you up at the Madrid airport or train station on arrival and take you to your hotel. Rooms are available from 3 pm; we will request early check-in for you, but it is subject to availability on the day.

Do I travel on high-speed trains between the cities?

> The itinerary uses Spain's rail network for every leg, including the high-speed train from Madrid to Malaga on day 3, followed by Malaga to Seville, Seville to Cordoba and Cordoba back to Madrid. All tickets are booked with assigned seats, and Luxury class travels in first class.

In which cities is the hop-on hop-off bus included?

> Hop-on hop-off bus tickets are included in Madrid, Seville and Malaga in both classes. In Madrid you can use the bus on your arrival day for an orientation tour, and in Seville the ticket covers 2 consecutive days that you can activate

What can I do during my two days in Madrid?

> Use the bus to visit the Royal Palace, Plaza Mayor, Puerta del Sol, Retiro Park, Plaza Cibeles and the Prado and Reina Sofia museums. On day 2 you can instead take an optional excursion to Toledo, Avila or Segovia, available through us at special rates or bookable yourself once there.

What is there to do in Malaga and the Costa del Sol?

> Malaga is the base for the beaches of the Costa del Sol, and your free time allows visits to the neighbouring towns of Marbella, Ronda and Puerto Banus. You have the afternoon of day 3 and all of day 4 to explore, with the hop-on hop-off bus included in the city.

Can I visit Granada and the Alhambra from Malaga?

> Yes, we recommend a day trip to Granada on day 4 to visit the Alhambra. Reservations are required and Alhambra entry often sells out months in advance, so ask us to arrange it when you book the package rather than waiting until you arrive.

What are the highlights of Seville on this package?

> With three nights in Seville you have time for the Royal Alcazar, Seville Cathedral and Plaza de Espana, using the 2-day hop-on hop-off bus ticket to get around. In the evening you can choose to see a Flamenco show, one of the best experiences in Andalusia.

What excursions can I take from Seville?

> Your free days in Seville are ideal for short trips to the neighbouring towns of Ronda, Cadiz and Jerez. Other activities such as Segway tours of the city may also be available to purchase from us or directly when you are there.

What should I see in Cordoba?

> Cordoba's must-sees are the Mezquita, the Mosque-Cathedral of Cordoba, and the Medina Azahara, both testaments to the harmony of different cultures in Andalusian history. You arrive by train from Seville on day 8 and have the rest of the day to explore on your own.

Where does the Madrid and Andalusia package end?

> The package ends in Madrid. On day 9 you have breakfast in Cordoba, check out and board the included train back to Madrid, which makes it easy to connect with international flights. Extra hotel nights in Madrid can be added on request.

What is not included in the Madrid and Andalusia package?

> Domestic and international airfare, travel insurance, visa fees, personal expenses such as laundry and souvenirs, extra hotel nights before or after the package and anything not listed as included are excluded. Optional excursions such as Toledo or Granada are priced separately.

What deposit is required and when is the final payment due?

> A deposit of 25 percent of the package price confirms your booking, and the balance is due 65 days before departure. Please review the cancellation terms in your booking documents before paying.

Is there a child price on the Madrid and Andalusia package?

> Yes, children are priced in two bands by age at departure: under 5 years, and 5 to 11 years. Children aged 12 and over pay the adult fare. Share the ages when you enquire and we will quote the correct family price and room set-up.

When are departures available for the Madrid and Andalusia package?

> Departures are on sale from 23 September 2026 through 8 December 2027, with many start dates across that period. The departure list on this page shows every available date along with its fare, and you can book any of them directly.

How do I ask a question or book the Routes of Spain Madrid and Andalusia package?

> The departure list on this page is bookable directly, with the fare shown for each date. For questions or custom add-ons, email travel@palacetours.com, call 786-408-0610, or message us on WhatsApp at https://wa.me/17864080610, answered by a travel specialist or our AI assistant.
