NEW SUITE CARRIAGES

The carriages of the “Al Andalus” were used by the British Royal family in the earlier days as they journeyed from Calais to the Cote d’Azur. The train has also recently remodeled seven suite sleepers, five of which were built in France in 1929. The Belle Epoque inspired suites have been enhanced with advanced technological features, but at the same time preserving the historical value and charm for the comfort and enjoyment of the guests.

The “Al Andalus” has a total of 32 suites consisting of 12 Standard and 20 Superior Suites, all of which have separate air conditioners. The Superior Suites have 2 low beds, a safe, closet and a private bathroom, while the Superior Suites are equipped with a double bed (150 x 200 cm), a mini-bar, safe, closet and large full bathroom.

During the day, the beds fold into comfortable couches converting the suites into private lounges. Additionally, the highly trained train crew is available at your service 24 hours a day to assist you with all your needs.

Lounges of Glamour and Comfort

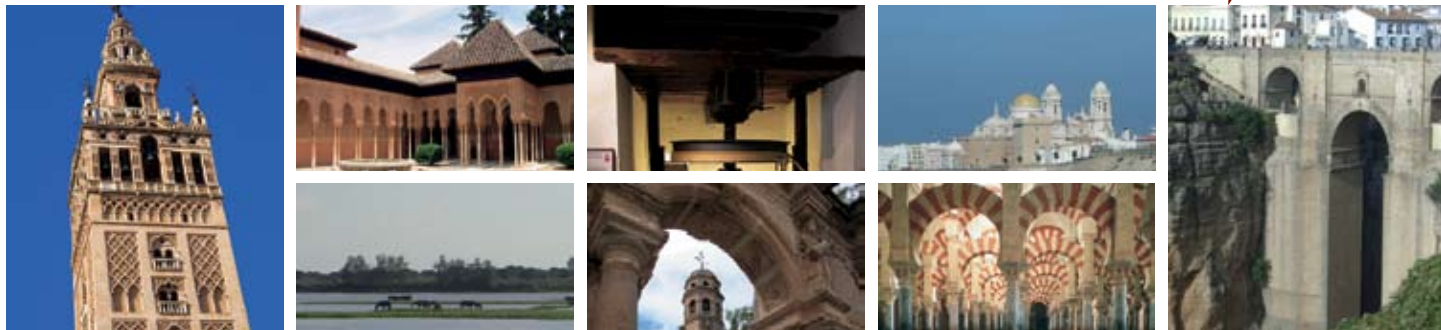

LOUNGE CARS

The “Al Andalus” train is the largest tourist train in the world and boasts of its four railway gems – the spacious four lounge cars. Enjoy a scrumptious buffet breakfast, lunch and dinner at the restaurant car, engage in a lively conversation with cocktails as you mingle with your fellow travelers at the bar car and delight in nightly musical performances at the piano car. The tearoom offers large windows and comfortable chairs where you may simply relax, while enjoying the view of beautiful scenery that passes by your window.

All carriages are air-conditioned and open 24 hours a day for all guests to enjoy with the friendly waiting staff ready to serve you at all times.
