DAY BY DAY

Your Itinerary

DAY 1

BOGOTA

Arrive in Bogota at the El Dorado International Airport where you will be met by the driver and transferred to the hotel.

Check in and enjoy a free night to explore the city or relax at the hotel.

For the guests arriving early during the day, you have the opportunity to enjoy the neighborhood on your own.

DAY 2

BOGOTA

Departure from the hotel after breakfast to visit the Salt Cathedral in Zipaquirá and City tour in Bogotá.

The municipality of Zipaquirá is one of the great centers of exploitation of salt of Colombia, which has given him the recognition as "City of Salt". In Zipaquirá we will visit the Salt Cathedral considered in Colombia as the architectural jewel of modernity. The salt Cathedral was declared as the wonder of Colombia in 2007.

We will descend 180 meters below the surface until arriving at a Catholic church- built in the heart of the salt mine, where you can admire sculptures carved in salt, among which stands a 16 meters high cross that is located behind the main altar. After completing the tour in the cathedral, we will move to the center of the town of Zipaquirá to visit its church and its beautiful square built with cobblestones.

You will have approximately 1 hour to enjoy at typical lunch.

Afterwards, we will return to the city of Bogotá and continue with a panoramic view of the historic center of the city, also known as La Candelaria, with its streets Narrow and steep, their houses with colonial roofs and eaves that evoke the memory of times of yesteryear.

La Candelaria is the historical and cultural heart of the city, we can find there the Plaza de Bolívar, declared National Monument on October 19, 1995, surrounded by some of the most important constructions in the city: The primate Cathedral of Colombia, officially Cathedral Basilica of the Immaculate Conception, was recognized with the honorary title of Colombian primate by Pope Leo XIII; The House of the Ecclesiastical Council whose construction dates back to 1689 and its main use was for clergy meeting. It also served as a prison for ecclesiastics. It is considered the oldest building in the frame of Bolivar Square; The chapel of the Tabernacle, built to house the Blessed Sacrament.

The archiepiscopal palace, the building where the Archdiocese of Bogotá works; The national Capitol, seat of the Congress, maximum legislative body of the Republic of Colombia; The Lievano Palace, headquarters of the mayor's office of Bogotá; And the Palace of Justice, where the Supreme Court of Justice, the Constitutional Court, the State Council and the Superior Council of the judiciary work.

And we finish our journey to the Gold Museum where we appreciate the largest collection of Pre-hispanic Goldsmith in the world, with approximately 34,000 pieces of gold and tumbaga (gold and copper alloy).

Evening is free to enjoy in Bogota on your own.

Inclusions: Accommodation, Breakfast, Tasting Lunch

DAY 3

BOGOTA

After breakfast, we will transfer to El Dorado International Airport to take flight to the city of Medellin.

Medellin is a destination for fashion, not only for its numerous centers and commercial areas but for the excellence of its fabrics and the ingenuity of the garments of Colombian designers that are exhibited there. Travelers can find all kinds of fabrics, ceramics, kitchen appliances and accessories such as handbags and jewellery of high quality here.

After checkin, we depart to take the city tour in Medellin visiting the most important places of the city that begin to mark the dynamics of a city of traditions rooted in a very special culture like the Paisa Antioqueña.

We will start with a panoramic tour of Medellin, pass by the renewed Paseo Carabobo, Barrio Prado, Pablo Tobón Uribe Theatre, Coltejer Building, Paseo Junín, Bolivar Park, Metropolitan Cathedral, Nutibara Square, Rafael Uribe Palace, Plaza de las Sculptures by the world renowned maestro Fernando Botero, Berrio's Park. Traditional attractions such as: Pueblito Paisa, Barefoot Park, Parque de los Deseos, Barrio Prado, among other places.

Free night to enjoy activities of interest on your own.

Inclusions: Accommodation with Breakfast

DAY 4

MEDELLIN

After breakfast, we start a tour to neighboring town of Santa Elena, the home of Silleteras popular for the Flower Festival in Medellin.

We visit a farmhouse owned by one of the families that have been participating in the Flower festival for many years and the owners explain the handling of flowers and local customs. The highlight is a unique workshop of making Silletera. You will enjoy this optional interactive activity that will give you the insight into the efforts that go into making of the most famous parade in Medellin.

We later return to Medellin where we have a walking tour and experience the Metro that has made it possible to connect this city from the communities in neighboring hills. We will then go for the "Innovation Tour" to Comuna 13 where you will witness the transition of this vibrant city and use of Graffiti for building of the community.

Once we return to the hotel, the evening is free to enjoy the city on your own.

Inclusions: Accommodation, Breakfast, Lunch
