COMMON QUESTIONS

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the Netherlands and Belgium river cruise from Dusseldorf?

> It is a 7-night round-trip river cruise from Dusseldorf aboard the MS Cruce Rio. It sails the Rhine, Meuse and Scheldt through the canals, art cities and windmill landscapes of the Low Countries. Meals, guided shore excursions and an English-speaking cruise manager are included.

Which cities does the Netherlands and Belgium cruise visit?

> From Dusseldorf the ship calls at Amsterdam, Rotterdam, Ghent, Brussels, Antwerp and Nijmegen before returning to Dusseldorf. That covers the major Dutch and Flemish cities in a single week, without changing hotels.

What time does boarding start in Dusseldorf?

> Boarding in Dusseldorf starts from 4:00 PM on Day 1, and there is a welcome reception when you arrive. You have free time to explore the city before dinner and your first night on board. Because the cruise is a round trip, it also ends in Dusseldorf.

What is included in the Amsterdam visit?

> The ship arrives in Amsterdam on the morning of Day 2, docking at Zaandam, Haarlem or Coenhaven. An included guided canal boat tour shows you the city's canals and historic houses. The afternoon is at leisure, and the ship stays overnight in port, so you can enjoy Amsterdam in the evening too.

What can we do in Rotterdam on this river cruise?

> The ship reaches Rotterdam at midday on Day 3. The city is known for its bold modern architecture and cultural life, including the Boijmans Van Beuningen Museum and the Kunsthal. An optional walking tour is available, and the afternoon is free.

What happens in Ghent and is there a gala dinner?

> On Day 4 the ship arrives in Ghent in the morning. Ghent is a medieval city with a network of canals and a beautifully preserved historic centre. An optional walking tour is offered, the afternoon is at leisure, and that evening the Captain's Gala Dinner is held on board.

What is included in the Brussels day?

> Day 5 includes a panoramic tour of Brussels, taking in the Royal Palace, the European Quarter, the Manneken Pis and the city's Art Nouveau architecture. The afternoon is at leisure to explore cafes, gardens and city life on your own.

What is special about Antwerp on the Low Countries cruise?

> Antwerp is Belgium's largest city in Flanders and a world diamond centre, also known for fashion and its art heritage. On Day 6 an included guided walking tour takes you through the historic centre, with time afterwards to explore on your own.

What cabin categories are available on the MS Cruce Rio?

> There are three categories. Category C is on the Lower Deck with a fixed window. Category B is on the Middle Deck with a panorama window that opens. Category A is on the Upper Deck with a French balcony. All staterooms have a private bathroom, individually controlled air conditioning and river views.

How much more are Category B and Category A cabins?

> The lead fare is for Category C. Category B adds about US$199 per person, and Category A about US$699 per person. The exact fare for each category and departure is shown on this page.

How much does the Netherlands and Belgium river cruise cost?

> Fares start from about US$2,399 per person sharing, in Category C. Port and tourist taxes and a fuel surcharge are added on top. The exact fare for each departure is shown on this page.

Can I book a single cabin on the Netherlands and Belgium cruise?

> Yes. A single supplement of 50% of the per-person rate applies in Category C, and 75% in Categories B and A. Single fares start from about US$3,598 in Category C, and the exact single price for your date is shown on this page.

What does the Dusseldorf round-trip cruise fare include?

> The fare includes your cabin, and full board (breakfast, lunch and dinner) throughout. It also covers welcome and captain's events including the gala dinner, guided shore excursions as listed in the itinerary (such as the Amsterdam canal tour and the Brussels and Antwerp tours), an English-speaking cruise manager, onboard entertainment, port charges, and Wi-Fi where available.

What costs are not included in the Netherlands and Belgium cruise?

> International flights, travel insurance, gratuities and personal expenses are not included. Drinks outside the included selection and optional excursions, such as the walking tours in Rotterdam and Ghent, are also extra. Port and tourist taxes of US$95 per person and a fuel surcharge of US$45 per person are added to the fare.

When does the Netherlands and Belgium cruise sail?

> Departures currently on sale run from 10 April 2027 to 11 September 2027, so you can choose spring, when the Dutch flower season is on, or the long days of summer. Live dates and fares are in the departure list on this page.

How do I get to Dusseldorf for the start of the cruise?

> Flights are not included. Because the cruise starts and ends in Dusseldorf, a simple round-trip ticket to Dusseldorf works well. Boarding opens at 4:00 PM on Day 1, so arriving that morning or the day before gives you a relaxed start.

What deposit is required for the Netherlands and Belgium cruise, and when is the balance due?

> A 25% deposit secures your cabin, and the balance is due 65 days before departure. Port and tourist taxes and the

Can children join the Netherlands and Belgium river cruise?

> Children are booked in two age bands, based on age at departure: under 5, and from 5 up to (but not including) 12. Child fares are confirmed on request, so send us the ages and your preferred sailing and we will quote.

Which rivers does the Netherlands and Belgium cruise use?

> The ship sails the Rhine out of Germany, then the Meuse and the Scheldt, plus the connecting waterways of the Netherlands and Belgium. That is how a single week can include Amsterdam, Rotterdam, Ghent, Brussels, Antwerp and Nijmegen.
