Overview

For many visitors to South Africa, there is no finer way to see the country than on the popular 48-hour weekly journeys between Pretoria and Cape Town. This 1 600-kilometre meander is a perfect illustration of South Africa as a world in one country. Travel the grasslands of the gold-rich Highveld to the haunting barrenness of the Great Karoo; trundle through the spectacular mountain ranges and scenic winelands of the Cape. Journey's end is Cape Town, the Mother City of South Africa, cradled by the imposing bulk of Table Mountain, Devil's Peak and Lion's Head.

Highlights of the north- and southbound routes include a visit to the historic village of Matjiesfontein; this authentic perfectly preserved Victorian Village, which was founded by Mr Logan as a refreshment stop in 1890, also boasts an impressive museum on the platform. Another stop is made in Kimberley providing an opportunity to enjoy a city tour and a visit to the Diamond Mine Museum and the world's largest man-made excavation, the Big Hole.

Double fares per person, two sharing; "from" is the lowest fare across the departures listed above. The saving depends on the cabin's regular price per person: $250 / $150 on journeys from $8,000, $150 / $100 from $5,000, and $50 on shorter trips. It's the same cabin, the same itinerary and everything included as before. The only difference is the price. Early Bird fares are limited to the cabins on each departure and close automatically. If you already know your dates, now is the time to book.

COMMON QUESTIONS

Frequently Asked Questions

How long is the northbound Cape Town Journey and where does it go?

> The northbound Cape Town Journey spends 3 nights on board, travelling about 1,600 km from Cape Town towards Pretoria. It passes through the Cape winelands and mountains and the Great Karoo, with stops at Matjiesfontein and Kimberley, before crossing the Highveld grasslands.

What happens on the first evening after leaving Cape Town?

> The train leaves Cape Town Station and travels through the Western Cape towards Worcester, with tea served in the lounge and observation cars. After dinner it climbs about 750 m up the escarpment. Around midnight it enters the first of four tunnels on the pass, and the last tunnel is 13.5 km long, so take care if you walk through the train.

Where does the northbound Cape Town Journey end?

> On Day 4 you leave the train at Meyerton Station, about 100 km south of the train's station in Pretoria. An optional complimentary transfer of about 90 minutes takes you from Meyerton to Pretoria. Allow roughly 90 minutes more if you want to visit the station museum or take a station tour.

What do we see at Matjiesfontein on the way north?

> On Day 2, after breakfast, you get off at Matjiesfontein to stroll through this preserved Victorian village. It was founded as a railway refreshment stop in 1890. Look out for the museum on the platform and the collection of historic cars and railway carriages near the Lord Milner Hotel.

What is included in the Kimberley stop?

> On Day 3, breakfast is served until 08:30, followed by a tour of Kimberley's Diamond Mine Museum and the Big Hole. Kimberley grew from the diamond discoveries that led to its founding in 1871. After lunch the train heads northeast across the Highveld grasslands.

What suite types can I book on the northbound Cape Town Journey?

> There are three suite types: Pullman Suite, Deluxe Suite and Royal Suite. Pullman is the most compact, and Royal is the largest, with only two per carriage. The departure list on this page shows the fare for each suite type on every date.

How much does the northbound Cape Town Journey cost?

> Fares start from about US$3,235 per person sharing, in the entry suite category, with Deluxe and Royal Suites costing more. The exact fare for each departure is shown on this page.

What does a single traveller pay on the northbound Cape Town Journey?

> Single fares start from about US$4,852 per person for sole use of a suite. The single price depends on the date and suite type, and the exact fare for each departure is shown on this page.

Can the price change because of exchange rates?

> Yes. Rates are based on the South African rand and can change with exchange-rate movements. Your balance is charged at the exchange rate that applies when it becomes due. You can pay in full at booking to lock in the current exchange rate. Contact us for details.

What is included in the northbound Cape Town Journey fare?

> The fare includes three meals a day on board and all beverages on the train. It also covers sightseeing with a qualified English-speaking guide, entrance fees as listed in the itinerary, 24-hour room service, limited on-board laundry and government taxes.

What is excluded from the northbound fare?

> Flights and transfers to and from the train station are not included, apart from the optional complimentary transfer from Meyerton to Pretoria. Off-train beverages and laundry, telephone calls, souvenirs, gratuities and other personal items are also extra.

Do I need a visa or special documents for the Cape Town Journey?

> You need a valid passport, and it is your responsibility to meet any visa or vaccination requirements for South Africa based on your nationality. Check with the South African embassy or consulate in good time before you travel.

What is the child policy on the northbound Cape Town Journey?

> Children are booked in two age bands, based on age at departure: under 2, and from 2 up to (but not including) 10. Child pricing is quoted on request, so call or message us with your children's ages and your preferred date.

How much is the deposit for the Cape Town Journey, and when is the balance due?

> A deposit of 30% of the tour cost secures your suite, and the balance is due 65 days before departure. Remember that the balance is charged at the exchange rate in effect at that time, unless you choose to pay in full at booking.

Which northbound Cape Town Journey departures can I book?

> We currently have 36 northbound departures on sale, from 22 September 2026 to 29 December 2026. That period covers South Africa's spring and early summer. The live dates, suite availability and fares are in the departure list on this page.

Is there a dress code on the northbound train?

> Dinners on board are formal every evening, so pack something smart. Daytime dress is relaxed. For the Matjiesfontein and Kimberley excursions, bring comfortable walking shoes, a hat and sun protection.

What landscapes does the northbound Cape Town Journey cross?

> You leave Cape Town through the winelands and mountain passes of the Western Cape. Next comes the Karoo, a vast semi-desert that was once an inland sea, where layers of ancient silt formed what geologists call the Karoo

Is room service available on the train?

> Yes. 24-hour room service is included in the fare, along with limited on-board laundry. Afternoon tea is served in the lounge and observation cars, and meals are served in the dining cars.

Can I take the Cape Town Journey southbound instead?

> Yes. The route also runs southbound, from Pretoria to Cape Town, with the same Kimberley and Matjiesfontein stops in reverse order. It has its own page and departure list. Ask us if you want to compare dates and fares in both directions.

How do I ask a question or book The Cape Town Journey: Rovos Rail (Northbound)?
