Overview

Celebrate the New Year with a one-of-a-kind train journey through Italy, connecting the eternal charm of Rome, the effortless Montalcino countryside, and the majestic allure of Venice. Ring in the New Year on rails: a gourmet New Year's Eve dinner curated by three-Michelin-starred Chef Heinz Beck, a burlesque performance, elegant toasts and a DJ set that carries the celebration past midnight as the train travels through the night.

Route: Rome - Montalcino - Venice - Rome · Duration: 3 days, 2 nights

La Dolce Vita Orient Express brings back the golden age of Italian travel: 12 Deluxe cabins, 18 Suites and the La Dolce Vita Suite, interiors inspired by the Italian 1960s, an on-board restaurant curated by three-Michelin-starred Chef Heinz Beck, and a Bar Car with live music rolling through the night. Palace Tours is pleased to offer the complete collection of La Dolce Vita itineraries.

Your Itinerary

DAY 1

ROME AND MONTALCINO

Leaving behind the eternal city of Rome in the morning, your journey leads to the enchanting Tuscany. In the afternoon, arrive in Montalcino, a charming medieval town renowned for its stunning landscapes and world-famous Brunello wine. Here, our local assistants will be waiting to welcome you. Enjoy dedicated transfers and the freedom to unwind at your own pace, whether through a moment of relaxation or by choosing from a selection of exclusive à la carte experiences designed to immerse you in the region's beauty and culture.

In the evening you will board the train once again, where a memorable evening awaits with a dinner onboard crafted by the world-renowned 3-Michelin starred Chef Heinz Beck. His refined creations will offer you a journey through flavors: elegant, balanced, and deeply rooted in Italian tradition.

After dinner, make your way to the Bar Car, where live entertainment takes center stage. Be swept away by the enchanting melodies of a pianist, accompanied by talented musicians and the soulful voice of a singer, a magical close to your first evening aboard. Let the rhythm of the rails lull you into relaxation as you retreat to the comfort of your cabin, ready for the discoveries that await at your next destination.

DAY 2

VENICE

Start the last day of the year with breakfast served either in the privacy of your cabin or in the elegant dining car.

In the morning, the train arrives at Venezia Santa Lucia. As you disembark, our local assistants will welcome you and guide you to a boat transfer through the city's iconic canals, bringing you directly into the heart of Venice.

Enjoy the city at your own pace or opt for curated à la carte experiences: your time in Venice will be filled with the city's unmistakable charm. In the afternoon embark the train, where the atmosphere shifts into something entirely new.

As a prelude to the evening, a burlesque performance will welcome you into a world of playful elegance and vintage glamour. Afterwards, a gourmet New Year's Eve dinner awaits in the restaurant car: an exquisite culinary experience, created by three Michelin starred Chef Heinz Beck that blends refinement and creativity.

DAY 3

ROME

The first day of the year begins in serenity, with a leisurely breakfast served in the privacy of your cabin or in the elegant restaurant car, as the train approaches the Eternal City.

At 11am, the train arrives at Roma Ostiense station. Upon disembarkation, you will be welcomed into the comfort of the La Dolce Vita Lounge, where you can relax and reflect on the journey just completed. Take your time, enjoy a final moment of calm, and prepare for the transition back into the world beyond the rails.

Though the journey comes to an end, its spirit continues: a collection of moments filled with beauty, discovery, and celebration that will remain with you long after the train has come to a gentle stop.

Tips & Travel Guide

Extend your journey

You can add days in Rome before the train and in Florence and Tuscany after it. Here are three suggested lengths:

- 4 days: 2 days before the train and 2 days after
- 5 days: 2 days before and 3 days after
- 6 days: 3 days before and 3 days after

Before the train: Rome

- Day 1: Arrive in Rome and transfer privately to your hotel. In the evening, walk to Piazza Navona, the Pantheon and the Trevi Fountain.
- Day 2: Visit the Vatican Museums, the Sistine Chapel and St Peter's Basilica with a private guide, then spend the afternoon at the Colosseum and the Roman Forum.
- Day 3 (6-day option): See the Borghese Gallery in the morning, then spend the afternoon and evening in Trastevere.
- The next morning, transfer to the station to board La Dolce Vita Orient Express.

After the train: Florence and Tuscany

- Day 1: Take the fast train from Rome to Florence, about an hour and a half. In the afternoon, visit the Duomo and the Baptistery.
- Day 2: See the Uffizi Gallery and Michelangelo's David at the Accademia with a private guide.
- Day 3 (5- and 6-day options): Spend a day in the Chianti hills, visiting wine estates and stopping for lunch in a village. Afterwards, leave from Florence or take the train back to Rome.
- The next day, transfer to the airport or your onward train.

We arrange the hotels, private transfers and guides around your train dates, and we can change any day to suit you. Prices are on request, and we have special offers on add-ons for this journey.

To request an extension, send us the enquiry form on this page and tell us which option you would like, or call 800-724-5120 (toll-free in the US) or +1 786-408-0610 from outside the US. You can also message us on WhatsApp at +1 786-408-0610.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is Whispers at Midnight on La Dolce Vita Orient Express?

It is a 3-day, 2-night New Year journey that starts and finishes in Rome, taking in the Tuscan town of Montalcino and the city of Venice. The heart of it is New Year's Eve on board, with a gourmet dinner, live performance and a celebration that carries past midnight while the train travels through the night. It is a round trip, so you end where you began.

Which dates does the New Year journey depart?

The departures currently on sale are 30 December 2026 and 30 December 2027, each running three days over the New Year. Both are listed on this page with their own fares and cabin availability. Because there is only one New Year departure a year, cabins go early.

What actually happens on New Year's Eve on board?

The evening of 31 December is spent on the train as it travels through the night. It opens with a burlesque performance in a spirit of playful, vintage elegance, followed by a New Year's Eve dinner curated by three-Michelin-starred Chef Heinz Beck, then a DJ set that carries the celebration past midnight. It is a party on rails rather than a formal gala in a ballroom.

What happens on the first day between Rome and Montalcino?

The train leaves Rome in the morning and heads north into Tuscany. In the afternoon you arrive at Montalcino, where local assistants welcome you with dedicated transfers and time to enjoy the town at your own pace or take an exclusive a la carte experience. In the evening you reboard for dinner on board crafted by three-Michelin-starred Chef Heinz Beck.

What is Montalcino and why is it on the itinerary?

Montalcino is a medieval hilltop town in southern Tuscany, known for its fortress, its stone streets and the sweep of countryside around it. It is one of the classic views of rural Italy and a striking contrast to Rome and Venice on either side of it. The stop gives you an unhurried afternoon there with local assistance on hand.

How is the Venice day arranged?

On the morning of 31 December the train arrives at Venezia Santa Lucia, where local assistants meet you and take you by boat through the canals into the heart of the city. You have the day to explore at your own pace or choose curated a la carte experiences. In the afternoon you return to the train, where the New Year celebration begins.

How does the journey end on New Year's Day?

The first day of the year starts gently with a leisurely breakfast in your cabin or in the restaurant car as the train

Is this a round trip that returns to Rome?

Yes. The routing is Rome - Montalcino - Venice - Rome, so you start and end at Roma Ostiense. That makes the logistics simple: one city for both your arrival and departure flights, and one hotel if you want nights either side. Many guests add a night in Rome before boarding and another after disembarking on New Year's Day.

What cabin categories can I book for the New Year departure?

The journey is sold as Deluxe Cabin and Cabin Suite. The train carries 12 Deluxe cabins, 18 Suites and the signature La Dolce Vita Suite, with interiors inspired by Italian design of the 1960s. Current availability by category is shown on this page.

How much does the New Year journey cost?

Fares start from EUR 8,880 per person based on two people sharing a cabin, reflecting the New Year programme on board. The exact fare for each departure and cabin category is shown on this page. All meals including the New Year's Eve dinner, selected beverages and the described experiences are included.

Can I book a cabin for myself on the New Year departure?

Yes, solo travellers are welcome and a single-occupancy fare applies. It is higher than the sharing rate because a whole cabin is taken out of inventory, and the rate for each departure is shown on this page. Given how few cabins exist on a single New Year departure, it is worth asking early.

What is included in the fare for Whispers at Midnight?

The fare covers your cabin on board, all meals with menus curated by three-Michelin-starred Chef Heinz Beck including the New Year's Eve dinner, selected beverages, the off-train experiences described in the itinerary, live entertainment in the Bar Car and a dedicated cabin steward. The New Year celebration on board is part of the journey, not an add-on.

What is not covered by the price?

Travel to and from Rome is not included, nor are personal expenses, gratuities or travel insurance. Optional a la carte experiences in Montalcino or Venice are paid separately when you choose them. Anything not expressly listed in the itinerary is outside the fare.

Are all meals included over the New Year?

Yes. Breakfast, lunch and dinner on board are included throughout, with menus curated by three-Michelin-starred Chef Heinz Beck, and New Year's Eve dinner is the centrepiece of the programme. Breakfast can be served in your cabin or in the restaurant car. Tell us about dietary requirements in advance so the galley can plan.

What is the Bar Car like on this journey?

The Bar Car is where the train's social life happens, with live music running through the night and selected beverages included. On the New Year departure it carries the celebration forward after dinner with a DJ set past midnight. If you would rather step away, your cabin and its steward are a few steps down the corridor.

What deposit is required, and when is the balance due?

A deposit of 30 percent of the tour price confirms your cabin and is non-refundable. The balance is due 125 days before departure, and bookings made within 125 days of departure are payable in full at the time of booking. Your written confirmation shows the exact amounts and the dates they fall due.

Can children join the New Year journey?

Children are welcome, with reduced rates for those under 5 and for those aged 5 up to 12, based on their age at departure. They share the cabin with their accompanying adults. Bear in mind the New Year's Eve programme runs late into the night, so it suits older children better; talk to us and we will advise on the fit.

Which airport should I use, and when should I arrive in Rome?

Flights are not included; most guests fly into Rome Fiumicino, Italy's principal long-haul gateway. Because the train leaves Rome on the morning of 30 December, we strongly suggest arriving at least the day before so a delay cannot cost you the departure. Disembarkation is at 11am on 1 January, so book a late afternoon or evening flight home if you fly out that day.

How much walking is involved off the train?

Montalcino is a hilltop town with cobbled, sloping streets, and Venice means walking, bridges and steps once you step off the boat. Neither is strenuous, transfers are dedicated and local assistants are with you, but comfortable shoes and a warm coat matter at the end of December. Let us know about any mobility needs when you book.

How do I ask a question or book La Dolce Vita Orient Express: Whispers at Midnight?

Email travel@palacetours.com, call 786-408-0610 or message us on WhatsApp at <https://wa.me/17864080610>, where a travel specialist or our AI assistant will reply.
