Overview

From Rome to Portofino, and onward to Venice to experience Italy in motion.

Your Itinerary

DAY 1

ROME AND PORTOFINO

Your journey begins at Rome Ostiense's La Dolce Vita Lounge, where a private transfer has brought you directly from the airport or your hotel in Rome. From here, it's time to step aboard La Dolce Vita Orient Express. As the train pulls away, settle into your cabin before heading to the Restaurant Car for an exquisite lunch crafted by three-Michelin-starred chef Heinz Beck – a celebration of Italy's finest flavors. The scenery shifts gently from the heart of Rome, to the rolling Tuscan hills, and finally to the coastline of Liguria. In the afternoon, arrive at Santa Margherita Ligure, where a transfer awaits to take you to the charming town of Portofino. Spend the rest of the day wandering on your own or choose an à la carte experience to discover hidden corners of this stunning seaside town. In the evening, back on board to enjoy a refined dinner followed by drinks and a live musical trio in the Bar Car as the train glides into the night, wrapping your perfect first day.

VENICE

The experience begins with a boat ride from Santa Margherita Ligure along the Ligurian coast, arriving in Portofino surrounded by colourful façades, quiet waters, and seaside views. On arrival, a local guide welcomes you for a walk through the village, exploring Portofino's harbour, scenic lanes, and hidden corners while discovering the character and atmosphere that make this destination so iconic. After the guided visit, enjoy free time to continue exploring at your own pace, browse the local boutiques, stop for a gelato by the waterfront, or simply take in the charm of the village before returning on board La Dolce Vita Orient Express.

Frequently Asked Questions

How long is the Rome, Portofino and Venice journey?

It is a two-day, one-night itinerary running one way from Rome to Venice. You spend the single night in your cabin on board, with the Ligurian coast and Portofino filling the time between the two great cities at either end of the route.

What is the route in outline?

The train leaves Rome Ostiense and runs north through the Tuscan hills to the Ligurian coast, reaching Santa Margherita Ligure, from where you are taken across to Portofino. The journey then continues across northern Italy to Venice, where it ends at Venezia Santa Lucia.

How do we reach Portofino from the train?

The train stops at Santa Margherita Ligure and you are transferred from there to Portofino, including a boat ride along the Ligurian coast that brings you into the harbour by water. Arriving by sea, with the painted houses rising above the quay, is the classic way to see the village.

What do we do in Portofino?

A local guide walks you through the harbour, the lanes behind it and the corners most visitors miss, explaining what gives the village its character. Afterwards you have free time to browse the boutiques, stop for a gelato by the water or simply sit and watch the boats before returning on board.

Where do I join the train in Rome?

A private transfer collects you from your hotel in Rome or from the airport and brings you to the La Dolce Vita lounge at Rome Ostiense, the train's own waiting room. You board there, settle into your cabin, and lunch is served in the Restaurant Car once the train is under way.

What cabin categories can I choose?

Deluxe Cabin and Cabin Suite are both sold on this itinerary. The whole train has 12 Deluxe cabins, 18 suites and a single La Dolce Vita Suite, so each departure is intimate by design. The fare for each category and date appears in the departure list on this page.

How much does the journey cost?

Fares begin from about EUR 3,500 per person with two guests sharing a cabin, and rise with cabin category and date. The exact fare for every departure is shown on this page, which is the number to rely on rather than a single quoted figure that moves with demand.

What does the fare include?

Your cabin for the night, all meals on board with menus curated by three-Michelin-starred chef Heinz Beck, selected beverages including drinks served with meals, the guided Portofino experience and other off-train excursions set out in the itinerary, live entertainment in the Bar Car and a dedicated cabin steward.

What is not included in the price?

Getting to Rome and home from Venice is not included, nor are personal expenses, gratuities, travel insurance, or anything not expressly listed in the itinerary. Optional a la carte experiences are booked separately, and we can quote hotel nights in either city with transfers.

How many departures are there and when do they run?

This is one of the most frequently scheduled itineraries in the collection, with departures currently loaded from 12 October 2026 through to 13 October 2027. Every available date and its fare are listed on this page and can be booked directly with us.

What is the best season for the Ligurian coast section?

Late spring and early autumn are ideal: the sea is calm enough for the boat transfer to be a pleasure, the light on the painted houses is at its best, and Portofino is busy without being overwhelmed. Midsummer is hot and crowded, and midwinter brings shorter days on the coast.

Is the boat transfer suitable if I have limited mobility?

The Portofino programme involves a boat, a quayside and cobbled lanes that rise steeply behind the harbour, so a reasonable level of mobility helps. Tell us about any difficulty when you book and we will check what can be adapted for your departure before you commit.

What happens in the evening on board?

After you return from the coast, dinner is served in the Restaurant Car, and the Bar Car then opens with a pianist and vocalist for the night run across northern Italy. Selected beverages are included, and the mood is Italian design of the 1960s brought back to life.

Where does the journey end in Venice?

The train arrives at Venezia Santa Lucia, which sits right on the Grand Canal, so you step off the train and straight into the city with no road transfer to make. Most guests continue into Venice by water taxi, which we can arrange for you.

Can I book a cabin for myself?

Yes, on request and with a supplement over the per-person sharing fare, because the lead price assumes two people in the cabin. With so few cabins on the train, single-use space is limited, so tell us the date early and we will confirm the current rate.

What are the payment terms?

A deposit of 30 percent of the tour price confirms your cabin and is non-refundable. The balance is due 125 days before departure, and bookings made within 125 days of departure are payable in full at the time of booking. Your

Are child rates available?

Yes, with reduced bands for under 5 and for 5 to 12, using the child's age at the departure date. The cabins are compact and the character of the train is adult, so it suits older children rather than toddlers. Please speak to us before you book as a family.

What should I pack for a one-night journey?

One small case each is plenty. Bring smart-casual clothes for dinner and the Bar Car, comfortable shoes for the sloping lanes of Portofino, and a light jacket for the coast in the evening. Cabin storage is limited, so oversized luggage is best left at your hotel.

Can I add nights in Rome or Venice?

Yes, and most guests do, since the journey runs one way between two cities that deserve time of their own. Travel to and from the departure cities is not included in the fare, but we can book hotels and private transfers at both ends alongside your cabin.

How do I ask a question or book the Rome, Portofino and Venice journey?

Email travel@palacetours.com, call 786-408-0610, or message us on WhatsApp at <https://wa.me/17864080610>, and a travel specialist or our AI assistant will reply. Every departure shown on this page is bookable directly, and we can add hotels and transfers in Rome or Venice.
