Frequently Asked Questions

What is the Italian Swing journey?

It is a four-day, three-night round trip from Rome aboard La Dolce Vita Orient Express built around golf, pairing rounds at some of Italy's finest courses with nights on board the train. You play by day and travel, dine and sleep on the train, so there is no hotel to change.

Which golf courses are on the itinerary?

The programme takes in San Domenico Golf Club at Fasano in Apulia, a links-style course above the Adriatic, then The Club at Castiglione del Bosco in the UNESCO-listed Val d'Orcia in Tuscany, and a third round at either Antognolla Golf Club near Perugia or the Argentario Golf Club, as set out in the itinerary.

Where does the journey start and end?

It begins and ends in Rome. A private transfer brings you to the La Dolce Vita lounge at Rome Ostiense, the train departs in the evening of day one, and the itinerary concludes back in Rome, with a further round at Marco Simone Golf and Country Club described as part of the programme.

Do I need to be a strong golfer to enjoy this?

No. The courses are notable ones and reward good play, but the journey is designed around the pleasure of playing in beautiful places rather than competition. Guests of mixed handicaps travel together, and non-golfing partners can stay on board or explore locally instead of playing.

Are green fees and golf arrangements part of the programme?

The fare covers the off-train experiences described in the itinerary, which is how the rounds at the listed courses are arranged. Details such as club hire, caddies, buggies and tee times vary by course and departure, so ask us to confirm exactly what is covered for your date before you book.

Can I bring my own clubs?

Most guests prefer to travel with their own clubs, and luggage is handled for you between the train and each course. Storage space on board is limited by the size of the cabins, so tell us at the time of booking that you are bringing a bag and we will confirm the arrangements.

Can a non-golfing partner come along?

Yes, and many do. The fare is per person sharing a cabin regardless of whether both of you play, and a non-golfing guest can enjoy the Restaurant Car, the Bar Car and the surroundings of each stop while the round is under way. Let us know so the days can be planned for both of you.

What cabin categories are available?

Deluxe Cabin and Cabin Suite categories are offered on this itinerary. The train has 12 Deluxe cabins, 18 suites and a single La Dolce Vita Suite, all with private facilities, a dedicated steward and interiors inspired by Italian design of the 1960s. Current fares by category are shown on this page.

How much does the Italian Swing cost?

Fares start from around EUR 10,500 per person with two sharing a cabin, and vary by cabin category and departure date. The exact fare for each departure appears on this page, which is the figure to work from, since availability on a train with so few cabins moves quickly.

What is included in the fare?

The price covers your cabin for three nights, all meals on board with menus curated by three-Michelin-starred chef Heinz Beck, selected beverages including drinks served with meals, the off-train experiences described in the itinerary, live entertainment in the Bar Car and dedicated cabin steward service throughout the journey.

What is not included?

Travel to Rome and home again is excluded, as are personal expenses, gratuities, travel insurance and anything not expressly listed in the itinerary. Any extra nights in Rome at either end of the journey are quoted separately, and we are glad to arrange them with transfers.

What is San Domenico Golf Club like?

It is a links-style course at Fasano in Apulia, laid out above the Adriatic among ancient olive trees, so the sea is in view from much of the round. The train reaches southern Italy overnight, and you play there on day two before returning on board for dinner as the train heads north.

What makes The Club at Castiglion del Bosco special?

It is a private course set in the rolling hills of the Val d'Orcia, a UNESCO World Heritage landscape, threading between vineyards, old woodland and cypress ridges. It balances a genuine sporting test with some of the most complete Tuscan scenery you can play through, and it fills the third day of the journey.

What happens on board in the evenings?

After each round you return to the train for dinner in the Restaurant Car, then the Bar Car opens up with a pianist and vocalist and the sort of unhurried Italian evening the train was built for. Selected beverages are included, and the atmosphere is sociable rather than formal.

Which departure dates are on sale?

Departures currently loaded run from 4 April 2027 through to 22 September 2027, covering the spring and early autumn golf seasons. Every available date and its fare appear on this page and can be booked directly with us.

Is spring or autumn better for this itinerary?

April and May give fresh green fairways in Tuscany and comfortable temperatures in Apulia, while September brings warm days, firmer ground and fewer players on the courses. Both avoid the height of the Italian summer, when midday heat in the south makes a full round hard going.

What are the payment terms?

A deposit of 30 percent of the tour price confirms your cabin and is non-refundable. The balance is due 125 days before departure, and bookings made within 125 days of departure are payable in full at the time of booking. Your written confirmation shows the exact amounts and the dates they fall due.

Can I travel on my own?

Yes. Sole occupancy of a cabin is offered on request with a supplement over the sharing fare, and solo golfers fit easily into a journey where meals and the Bar Car are shared. Cabins for single use are few, so request one as early as you can for the date you want.

What should I pack besides golf clothing?

Bring your golf shoes and course clothing, plus smart-casual wear for dinner in the Restaurant Car and the Bar Car in the evenings. Cabin storage is limited, so keep to one case each alongside the golf bag, and a light layer is useful for early starts and Tuscan evenings.
