Frequently Asked Questions

How long is the Budapest Immersive Wellness Experience?

The Budapest Immersive Wellness Experience is an 8-day, 7-night stay in a single hotel in Budapest. It combines daily spa treatments with a guided sightseeing tour of the city and an excursion to the riverside town of Szentendre.

What is the difference between Gold and Silver class on this Budapest wellness tour?

Gold class is the Essential Spa Stay, with daily breakfast and dinner plus two spa treatments per day included. Silver class includes breakfast only, with dinners and spa treatments available at extra cost, so it suits travellers who want the Budapest stay with a lighter wellness programme.

How many spa treatments are included each day?

On Gold class, two treatments per day at the hotel's wellness spa are included throughout your stay. On Silver class the treatments are not included but can be added at extra cost. On day 1 you can also start with a doctor's check-up, depending on your arrival time.

What is included in the Budapest Immersive Wellness Experience?

The package includes 7 nights at your hotel in Budapest, arrival and departure transfers between the airport or railway station and the hotel, a guided sightseeing tour of Budapest and a tour to Szentendre. Gold class adds daily dinner and two daily spa treatments to the included breakfasts.

What is not included in the Budapest wellness package?

Domestic and international airfare, travel insurance and visa fees are not included. Meals not listed as included, activities during leisure time, optional tours and personal items such as laundry and souvenirs are also extra.

Are airport transfers in Budapest included?

Yes. A transfer from Budapest airport or railway station to your hotel on arrival and back again on departure is included, with check-in assistance at the hotel. Our services end with your departure transfer on day 8.

What happens on the Szentendre excursion?

On day 3 you visit Szentendre, a picturesque town near Budapest known for its artisan charm, before returning to the hotel for more spa treatments. The Marzipan Museum and other optional activities there are not included, but we are happy to arrange them for you.

When is the guided sightseeing tour of Budapest?

The guided city tour usually takes place on day 1 after you check in, depending on your arrival time. If you arrive too late to join it, the sightseeing tour is provided on day 2 instead, so you will not miss it.

What optional excursions can I add in Budapest?

Optional experiences with an English-speaking guide and driver include a 4-hour folklore show with dinner, a 4-hour Jewish Budapest walking tour, a 13-hour day trip to Lake Balaton, Tihany, Keszthely and the thermal lake at Heviz, and a 13-hour day trip to Vienna. These are priced separately.

What is the Lake Balaton and Heviz day trip?

This optional 13-hour excursion visits the Tihany peninsula, a resort and nature reserve with a folklore village and an 11th-century abbey, then Keszthely and its palace and park. It finishes at Heviz, a thermal lake whose healing waters have been known since Roman times.

Can I visit Vienna from Budapest on this tour?

Yes, as an optional 13-hour day trip with an English-speaking guide and driver. Vienna is about three hours by road from Budapest, and the day introduces the city of parks and palaces and its rich heritage. It is not included in the package price.

Can I visit the Great Synagogue on the Jewish Budapest tour?

The optional 4-hour Jewish Budapest tour walks you through the neighbourhood's most important sites of Hungarian Jewish history. Entrance to the Synagogue must be requested at the time of confirmation, so mention it when you book.

What do the free afternoons on this wellness tour involve?

Afternoons are left open to suit you. Ideas in the itinerary include a guided walk along the Danube, a visit to a local tea house or art exhibition, a wellness workshop focused on mindfulness, yoga or holistic nutrition, a thermal bath visit or a wellness cooking class, some at extra cost.

Which meals are included on the Budapest wellness tour?

Daily breakfast is included on both classes. Gold class also includes dinner at the hotel each evening; on Silver class dinner is at extra cost. If you leave the hotel too early for breakfast, tell reception at least 24 hours before and it will be replaced with a lunch package.

How much is the deposit for the Budapest Immersive Wellness Experience?

A 25% deposit confirms your booking, with the balance due 65 days before arrival. The exact package price for your dates and class is shown on this page or quoted when you enquire.

Can children join the Budapest wellness tour?

Children can travel with you, and child pricing uses two bands based on age at departure: 0 to under 5, and 5 to under 12. Spa treatment suitability for children depends on the hotel's policy, so please give us their ages when you enquire.

Is this Budapest wellness tour suitable for solo travellers?

Yes, it works well for someone travelling alone as the programme is built around your own treatments and free time. Single occupancy is available on request, so contact us for a single-room quote for your dates.

Who is the Budapest Immersive Wellness Experience best suited for?

It suits travellers who want a restful week of self-care with some culture, rather than a fast-paced sightseeing tour. You stay in one hotel for all 7 nights, avoid repeated packing, and balance daily treatments with light exploration of Budapest.

Can I have one last spa treatment on departure day?

Day 8 begins with a final breakfast and the option of one last spa session before you check out, depending on your departure time. Your transfer then takes you to Budapest airport or railway station.
