DAY BY DAY

Your Itinerary

DAY 1

MILAN

As you arrive at the airport, a dedicated concierge awaits to whisk you away in a private transfer, enveloping you in an ambiance of sophistication. The city of Milan unfolds before you, a tapestry of historic architecture and vibrant culture, inviting your senses to awaken with every glimpse of its storied streets. Depending on your arrival time, you may savor a first taste of the old town, where enchanting piazzas and artisanal boutiques beckon with their charm.

Finally, the evening leads you to the exquisite Bulgari Hotel Milano, where elegance meets comfort.

DAY 2

MILAN

Awaken to a sumptuous breakfast before you meet your private guide and embark on a captivating journey to the grand Castello Sforzesco.

As you traverse the ancient patrol paths along the fortress battlements, the panoramic views of Milan unfold, revealing a city steeped in history. Stroll down the charming Via Dante, where the air is rich with the aromas of local cuisine and the vibrant buzz of small boutiques, leading you to the magnificent Piazza Duomo, a sight that Mark Twain revered as a daily ritual of beauty.

DAY 3

MILAN

After breakfast you will meet your personal shopper. Your day will be dedicated to shopping into the so-called Quadrilatero della Moda, set up of Via Montenapoleone and Via della Spiga up to Corso Vittorio Emanuele II. You will have Free lunch.

In the evening, meet with the guide in the hotel and transfer to the Navigli area. You will have dinner on a charming boat that will sail through this attractive channel full of bars and restaurants on its sides made more charming by the moon light. At the end of the tour you will be brought back to the hotel for an overnight stay.

DAY 4

VERONA

Have breakfast at the hotel and depart for the city of Verona. It is also called “Porta d’Italia” because it reveals, to those coming from the North, all the peculiarities and beauties of the country. In the morning, the panoramic guided tour of the city allows you to see the Renaissance Doors, the Basilica of San Zeno, the Castle and the Ponte Scaligero, the Arch of Gavi and the Porta Romana dei Borsari, the Stone Bridge, and the Roman Theater. You will climb on the hill of San Leonardo from where you can enjoy an exciting view over the City.

After a break for lunch in an elegant restaurant of the historic center, the tour continues with a walking tour though the streets of the center with a stop for a visit in the Casa di Giulietta, a site linked to the famous Shakespearean tragedy and the Arena di Verona, the city symbol which has made it famous all over the world. In the end of this day, the tour leads to Venice.

*Accommodation: Dinner and Overnight stay at Baglioni Luna Hotel 5 * or Similar.*

DAY 5

VENICE

After breakfast at the hotel, you will meet the guide before heading to Piazza San Marco from where your tour starts. It will take you to discover the most suggestive corners of Venice. You will admire the monuments and beautiful buildings surrounding this spectacular Square, considered one of the most famous in the world. The tour will go on to Santa Maria Formosa, whose story is mixed of anecdotes and real historical events, we will see the church and the homonymous Campo around it. Thereafter we will head to the place where Marco Polo's home once was, there we will also admire the exterior of the famous Malibran Theater. For a long time it was considered as one of the most extravagant stages in Venice. You will walk through the Mercerie, the old shopping streets of Venice, where once were exchanged precious goods coming from the farthest countries of the world. Culinary break in a typical Venetian tavern to taste the delicious regional dishes.

The tour will end with the visit inside the Doge's Palace, guardian of the Venetian history, one of the symbols of the City. Before going back to the hotel, we will stop on the Ponte Dei Sospiri, the condemned to prison spent their last moments of freedom before entering the jail.

*Accommodation: Dinner and Overnight Stay at Baglioni Luna Hotel 5 * or Similar.*

DAY 6

VENICE

After breakfast at the hotel, you will meet with the guide and depart on water taxi to Murano. Today's tour will allow you to closely observe the techniques of ancient Venetian Artisans of glass. You will have a visit tour inside the laboratories of a company that represents an Italian excellence in the world.

Visit Murano and have lunch in an old tavern to taste the traditional Venetian cuisine in an intimate and refined atmosphere. Transfer to Burano for a relaxing visit of the most hidden corners of this picturesque island that will allow you to get in touch with history and ancient traditions of one of the most beautiful islands in Venice.

Upon returning to Venice, you will meet with the guide in the hotel and visit St. Mark's Basilica in the evening, which includes a crypt built during the 9th century to host the body of St. Marco — accessible only with this evening tour. A special experience offered behind closed doors and away from the crowd that will allow you to experience a moment of deep spirituality as well as enjoy art and culture.

At the end of the tour you will have dinner in an elegant water restaurant with spectacular views of the lagoon.

*Accommodation: Baglioni Luna Hotel 5 * or Similar.*

DAY 7

BOLOGNA

After breakfast at the hotel, you will depart to the city of Bologna. Many cities are remembered with names but Bologna overcomes them all. The city has been defined “Dotta” for the presence of one of the oldest Universities of Italy, “the Red” for the color of its roofs and house façades, “the Grassa” for the tasty and sublime gastronomy, “the Turrita” for its many towers. Bologna needs to be discovered slowly, on foot, walking through the streets of one of the most extended city centers in Europe.

You will make a guided tour of the old town and a special visit of the medieval towers. After having Lunch in a restaurant, you will experience a guided tour of the medieval market, where you will have the opportunity to plunge into the atmosphere of ancient market with the possibility to buy typical gastronomic products. In the evening, you will have a cooking course to learn how to prepare a special Bolognese pasta according to the traditional recipe in a historically famous area for restaurants and taverns. After the lesson, you will eat the prepared dishes accompanied by a glass of wine in a pleasant context of conviviality.

Accommodation at the Grand Hotel Majestic Previously Baglioni 5* or Similar.

DAY 8

CASTELVETRO

Today you will visit Castelvetro, a small charming hamlet on the hills of Modena for a visit to an ancient Acetaia, housed inside a 16th century tower. It is one of the rare vineyards still housed in towers and open to the public. A very exclusive place, loaded with charm and history.

The tour begins with a visit of the vineyards from where the grapes come from, and then it goes on with the tasting visit of an Acetaia to learn the production method of the Traditional Balsamic Vinegar of Modena DOP. You will then have a brief break for a refreshing Aperitivo — offered to let you taste the wines of Castelvetro accompanied by typical products of the Modena tradition. Afterwards, you will be transferred by Bus to Maranello where you will visit the Ferrari Museum, a unique and engaging trip through the cars that have made the history of motors on the slopes and roads around the world.

You will continue to Castelli del Ducato of Parma and Piacenza where a dinner will be waiting for you in the Rivalta Castle Hotel or Similar, where you will stay for the night as well.

DAY 9

CASTELVETRO

The day is dedicated to shopping. After breakfast at the hotel, there will be a brief guided tour to the Borgo and the Rivalta Castle. You will then Depart to Fidenza Village, a luxury Outlet in the middle of the Food Valley. As you arrive, there will be free time for shopping. It is also possible that you'll get to stop by in Barlumeria, a concept restaurant of slow and typical food inside the mall, a welcoming and evocative stage where the main character is Parmigiano Reggiano. Here in addition to tastings, it is possible to buy the typical products that represent the excellences of this area.

In the late afternoon, you will depart for Parma.

*Accommodation: Dinner and Overnight stay at the Grand Hotel de la Ville 5 * or Siimilar*

DAY 10

CINQUE TERRE

After breakfast at the hotel, you will transfer to the haven of La Spezia via Private Bus. You will then meet with the guide and depart for a luxury boat excursion — a wonderful visit to the Cinque Terre from the sea, a unique way to enjoy this wonderful Riviera and its Picturesque Villages.

The first part of this fascinating tour will be Portovenere's splendid seaport, which is part of the UNESCO World Heritage Sites. You will continue towards Cinque Terre, with a lunch break in Vernazza in a restaurant with a terrace overlooking the sea. You will then sail to the Gulf of Tigullio with a visit to the abbey of San Fruttuoso and Portofino. Afterwards, a boat transfer to Santa Margherita Ligure.

Accommodation: Dinner and Overnight Stay at the Hotel Santa Margherita Palace & Portofino Suite 4 or Similar.*

DAY 11

LANGHE

On this day you will journey to the Langhe region; a unique place of charm that captures the attention of anyone passing by. Hills and Vineyards alternating with Castles and Old Villages— this is the landscape that welcomes every visitor, declared part of the Unesco Heritage of Humanity.

The entire day is dedicated to visiting the canteens following the path of the Barolo and Nebbiolo Wines. Enjoy your lunch in an elegant eighteenth-century farmhouse among the Vineyards.

At the end of your tour, you will be hosted in the Relais San Maurizio Luxury Spa & Resort 5 * or Similar, where you can relax in a Spa, Dine, and spend the night.

TURIN

After Breakfast, you will meet with the guide to discover Turin; a city with a thousand faces with its immense heritage inherited from centuries of history and the dynamism of a city open to the world. The Tour begins at the Duomo in Turin where the Holy Shroud is preserved — the relic is only taken out on public occasions — and continues to Piazza Castello, the city center, also known as the “living room of Turin”. Here you can admire, overlooking this beautiful square, the Royal Palace, the Madama Palace, the Church of San Lorenzo and the Regio Theater, among the most important opera theaters of Italy.

You will have your lunch in a typical restaurant to enjoy a cuisine made with local ingredients. In the afternoon you will visit the Mole Antonelliana and the Museum of Cinema, the symbol of the city of Turin and home to the National Museum of Cinema. It is the only Museum dedicated to the seventh art in Italy. You can spend a few hours among memorabilia, optical lanterns, ancient and modern cinemas and climb to the top of the Mole with the panoramic lift to enjoy a stunning view of the city.

In conclusion, we finish the day with romance: the long love story between Turin and Chocolate. You cannot finish a tour in Turin without having tasted the so-called “Food of Gods”. A journey through the secrets behind the unique Chocolate flavor inside a laboratory of one of the most famous chocolate manufacturers of Italy with tasting.

Accommodation: Dinner and Overnight stay at the hotel Principi di Piemonte 5 or Similar*

DAY 13

COMO

Your journey to the enchanting city of Como unfolds in the comfort of a private bus, where the anticipation of discovery fills the air. Upon arrival, a knowledgeable guide unveils the treasures of this ancient lakeside gem, founded by the Romans. Stroll along the picturesque promenade, where the gentle lapping of water accompanies your gaze as it drifts over exquisite villas and intimate squares, each echoing stories of the past, from the grandeur of the Broletto to the breathtaking Duomo.

<pAs the day unfolds, indulge in a delectable light lunch featuring local specialties aboard a private taxi-boat, where the luxurious ambiance is matched only by the stunning vistas during your panoramic cruise across the shimmering lake. With the sun casting a golden glow over the water, you savor every moment before retreating back to Milan, your heart full of the rich culture and beauty of Como. This enchanting day concludes with an exquisite dinner and an overnight stay at the opulent Bulgari Hotel Milan, where elegance
