Overview

Welcome to Jordan! Discover incredible archeological ruins, natural and cultural wonder, taste delicious food, enjoy a safe haven in the Middle East where English is widely spoken. Connect with the Jordanian people. Jordan isn't all about touring the past though, and you'll only have to look to the lively streets of Aqaba on the Red Sea for world-class diving, or the downtown areas of Amman – the capital – for a burgeoning nightlife scene and up-coming modern art to boot. Amman is a great place to feel the beating pulse of Arabia and get a sense of the deep histories and cultural strands that inform Jordan as a whole. Sun-scorched and glowing deep orange and red under the Arabian sun, the breathtaking reaches of the Wadi Rum of southern Jordan are surely one of the most awesome natural wonders in the region. Carved from the rocky limestone escarpments that rise and fall dramatically on the eastern fringes of Aqaba, the famous valley is quintessential Jordanian backcountry. Huge bluffs of rock-ribbed mountains loom on the horizon; mythic petroglyphs from ancient Nabatean peoples hide in the nooks and crannies; camels groan, and climbers swing tenuously from ropes around the hoodoos. The Dead Sea carves its way through the heartlands of the Middle Eastern Levant. The lowest and most salty of the world's ocean water bodies, it's encircled by rising mountains and ochre-hued sand dunes, all of which reflect majestically upon the surface as the Arabian sun beats down.

COMMON QUESTIONS

Frequently Asked Questions

How long is the Discover Jordan tour and what is the route?

> Discover Jordan is an 11-day, 10-night active tour starting and ending at Queen Alia International Airport. The route runs Amman, Madaba, Mount Nebo and Kerak to the Dana Nature Reserve, then hikes through Wadi Feynan and Wadi Araba to Little Petra and Petra, on to Wadi Rum and finally the Dead Sea.

Is Discover Jordan a hiking tour?

> Yes. From day 3 the tour includes several full days of guided hiking with an experienced English-speaking hiking guide, covering routes of around 18 to 22 km a day through Wadi Dana, Wadi Feynan and Wadi Araba, plus hikes in Petra and Wadi Rum. It suits active travellers with good walking fitness.

How long are the daily hikes on Discover Jordan?

> Day 3 from Dana to Feynan is about 18 km (6 to 7 hours), day 4 to Wadi Araba is about 22 km (7 to 8 hours), and day 5 to Shakarit Musaid is about 19 km (7 to 8 hours) with some uphill sections. Petra and Wadi Rum days also include hiking.

What is included in the Discover Jordan tour?

> Included are the arrival transfer with meet and assist at the airport, sightseeing in an air-conditioned sedan with an English-speaking driver, 6 nights of hotel and lodge accommodation on bed and breakfast, 4 nights of wild camping with guided hiking on full board, entrance fees to the listed sites, a Bedouin lunch and dinner in Wadi Rum and a 4-hour jeep tour in Wadi Rum.

What is included on the camping and hiking days?

> On the hiking days breakfast, lunch and dinner are included, prepared fresh by your own chef, with Bedouin tea, water and soft drinks. Camping equipment and a support jeep that carries your luggage between campsites are also provided, and on day 4 a donkey carries the water.

Do I need to bring a sleeping bag on Discover Jordan?

> Yes. Camping equipment is included, but sleeping bags are not, so please bring your own for the nights of wild camping. On some camping nights an upgrade to a luxury lodge is possible for a supplement.

Where do I stay on the Discover Jordan tour?

> You stay at the Ambassador Hotel in Amman, Wadi Dana Lodge in the Dana Nature Reserve, private camps in Wadi Feynan, Wadi Araba and Shakarit Musaid, Little Petra Campsite, a hotel in Petra, Mazayen Camp in Wadi Rum and the Dead Sea Spa Hotel for the last two nights, or similar.

How is Petra visited on Discover Jordan?

> Petra is visited over two days. On day 6 you start at Little Petra (Siq al Barid) and hike the back-door route up to the Monastery. On day 7 you enter by the Siq to see the Treasury, the Street of Facades, the Theatre and the Colonnaded Street, and can hike via Wadi Farasa to the High Place of Sacrifice, a route few visitors take.

What is the back-door hike to the Petra Monastery?

> From Little Petra you climb steps and follow a quieter route into Petra that arrives at the Monastery, one of its largest carved facades. The trail gives fine views over the surrounding mountains and avoids the busiest main entrance on your first day at the site.

What happens in Wadi Rum on Discover Jordan?

> On day 8 you spend a full day hiking in the Disi area of Wadi Rum, famous for its red sand and rock formations, before a final night at a private desert camp with a campfire and Bedouin tea. On day 9 you enjoy a few more hours of hiking before lunch and a transfer to the Dead Sea.

What is the Dana Nature Reserve?

> Dana is a nature reserve in southern Jordan where you spend day 2 overnight at a lodge. On day 3 you hike a spectacular downhill route from Dana through the sandstone gorge of Wadi Dana to Wadi Feynan, one of the scenic highlights of the tour.

Is there time to relax at the end of Discover Jordan?

> Yes. After the hiking days you spend two nights at a 4-star resort on the Dead Sea, with day 10 completely free. Float in the salty water, try the healing mineral mud or enjoy the spa before your airport transfer on day 11.

Which sites are visited on the first sightseeing day?

> On day 2 you visit St. George Church in Madaba with its famous mosaic map, Mount Nebo where Moses is said to have viewed the Promised Land, and the immense Crusader castle at Kerak on the King's Highway, before reaching Dana for dinner and overnight.

Do I need a visa for Jordan on this tour?

> Our representative meets you at Queen Alia International Airport and helps arrange your visa on arrival for non-restricted nationalities before walking you through customs. Check the requirements for your passport before you travel.

Can I add extra activities in Petra?

> After your Petra visit on day 7 there are optional extras, such as a Turkish bath with a steam bath, scrub and soap massage. These are not included in the tour price and can be arranged on request.

Which travel class is Discover Jordan offered in?

> Discover Jordan is offered in Superior class, combining comfortable hotels and lodges with private camps on the hiking days. Where possible, some camping nights can be upgraded to a luxury lodge for a supplement.

How much deposit is needed to book Discover Jordan?

> A 25% deposit confirms your booking, and the balance is due 65 days before departure. The fare for your dates is shown on this page or confirmed in your quote.

Can children join the Discover Jordan tour?

> Child pricing uses two bands based on age at departure: 0 to under 5, and 5 to under 12. Because the tour includes long daily hikes of up to 22 km and wild camping, please discuss your children's ages and fitness with us before booking.

Can I book Discover Jordan as a solo traveller?

> Yes, single occupancy is available on request. Contact us with your preferred dates and we will quote the single rate for the hotels, lodge and camps on this itinerary.
