All cancellation, change, or update requests must be submitted in writing by email to travel@palacetours.com. Please allow at least 48 hours (and in some cases longer) for us to review, confirm, and process the request and advise any applicable fees. A cancellation, change, or update takes effect only once we have received and processed the request, and we will confirm the outcome to you once it has been processed. Cancellation timeframes and the applicable fee are calculated by reference to the local time and normal business hours at the destination where the tour is provided; a request received outside those business hours (including evenings, weekends, and public holidays at the destination) is treated as received on the next business day at the destination, and a further processing period of at least 48 hours (and in some cases longer) then applies before the request takes effect.

Guests need to add 3 business days to the above timeframes. An administration fee of 15% on any monies paid by the client will be charged prior to refund.

We strongly recommend purchasing travel insurance to cover the losses incurred in case of cancellation. For information on available plans or to purchase travel insurance, please visit www.palacetours.com/insurance.

Frequently Asked Questions

How long is The Medellin Experience tour?

The Medellin Experience is a 4-day, 3-night tour. Day 1 is arrival and transfer to your hotel, day 2 is a city tour of Medellin, day 3 is a full-day tour of Guatape and El Penol, and day 4 is check-out and transfer to the airport.

Which airport do I fly into for The Medellin Experience?

You arrive at Rionegro airport, which serves Medellin, and are transferred with assistance to your selected hotel in the city. On day 4 you are transferred back to the airport. Airline tickets are not included in the tour price.

What does the Medellin city tour include?

The four-hour city tour on day 2 covers El Poblado and its Golden Mile, the Sculptures Square, a ride on the metro and the metrocable cable car, and a panoramic drive through the north zone. It continues to the Barefoot Park, the Intelligent Building and Pueblito Paisa, where you can buy handicrafts and enjoy a view over the city.

Why is the Medellin metro and metrocable part of the tour?

The Medellin metro runs parallel to the Medellin River and connects different parts of the city, and it has revolutionised daily life there. Riding the metro and the metrocable cable car is included on your city tour and gives you a real sense of how the city has transformed.

Do we go inside the Botanical Garden or Explora Park on the city tour?

No. The north zone, where the Botanical Garden, Explora Park and the Park of Desires are located, is seen on a panoramic drive, and you do not enter these places during the tour. There is a photo stop at the Park of Desires, and you get off to explore Pueblito Paisa.

What is El Penol and do I have to climb it?

El Penol is a 220-metre-high rock in eastern Antioquia with views over the reservoir. The climb is not included in the tour, but you can see the panoramic view of the reservoir from the viewpoint next to the rock.

What is Guatape like?

Guatape is a very picturesque village about 2 km from El Penol, known for the striking decorated plinths on its houses. You can stroll along its lakeside boardwalk, and a short boat ride or zipline over the reservoir is available as an optional activity.

What time does the Guatape and El Penol tour leave, and is lunch included?

The full-day tour departs from your hotel at 09:00 on day 3. A simple, typical village lunch and a snack are included, and the day also stops at the Salto del Tequendamita, a natural waterfall about 20 metres high, and for handicraft

What is included in The Medellin Experience?

The price includes 3 nights at the hotel, breakfast, hotel insurance, airport transfers in both directions, a private city tour with access to the metro and metrocable, and a private tour of Guatape and El Penol.

What is not included in The Medellin Experience?

Airline tickets, travel insurance and visa fees are not included, nor are personal items such as laundry and souvenirs, or any services not described in the itinerary. Optional activities at Guatape, such as the boat ride or zipline, are extra.

Is The Medellin Experience a private tour?

Yes. It is one of our private tours in Colombia, with a private city tour and a private tour of Guatape and El Penol, plus assisted airport transfers. It is suitable for families, couples and solo travellers alike.

Which hotel classes are available for The Medellin Experience?

The tour is offered in Silver, Gold and Platinum classes, which differ in the category of hotel you stay in. A travel specialist can suggest a hotel that fits your style and confirm which property applies to your dates.

Is The Medellin Experience suitable for families?

Yes. The tour is designed for anyone, including families, couples and singles, as it showcases the essence of Medellin. Child pricing uses two bands based on age at departure: under 5, and from 5 to under 12, and from age 12 the adult rate applies.

How much is the deposit for The Medellin Experience and when is the balance due?

A 25% deposit secures your booking. The balance is due 65 days before your arrival date, and bookings made within 65 days of travel are normally paid in full at the time of booking.

When can I take The Medellin Experience and what does it cost?

No fixed departure dates are currently listed on this page, so the tour is quoted on request for your preferred dates. Prices are per person sharing in USD and depend on your hotel class. Single occupancy is available on request with a supplement.

What is Pueblito Paisa?

Pueblito Paisa is a recreation of a traditional Antioquian village, set on a hill with a viewpoint overlooking Medellin. On the city tour you get off here to explore, shop for handicrafts and go up to the viewpoint for a panoramic view of the city.

Is breakfast included on The Medellin Experience?

Yes, breakfast is included at your hotel every morning, including day 4 before your airport transfer. A typical village lunch and snack are also included on the Guatape and El Penol day, while other meals are at your own expense.

How much walking is involved on The Medellin Experience?

The city tour is mostly by vehicle, metro and cable car, with short walks at stops such as Pueblito Paisa and the Barefoot Park. On the Guatape day you can stroll the boardwalk at your own pace, and climbing El Penol is optional.

Can I combine The Medellin Experience with other Colombia tours?

Yes. The Medellin Experience pairs well with our Bogota, coffee region and Cartagena experiences. A travel specialist can link the tours with suitable flights and transfers into a longer Colombia holiday.
