Overview

Your journey crosses the whole continent, from the Indian Ocean at Perth to the Pacific at Sydney, aboard the legendary Indian Pacific. Over five days and four nights you trade city skylines for the red earth of the goldfields, the treeless expanse of the Nullarbor Plain and the longest stretch of straight railway track in the world.

This is far more than a train ride. Each day brings a stop worth stepping off for: a morning among the gold-mining giants of Kalgoorlie, a night under brilliant outback skies at the tiny settlement of Cook, an evening of food and wine in a heritage cellar in the Barossa Valley, a choice of adventures in the Silver City of Broken Hill, and a final morning among the sandstone cliffs and eucalypt valleys of the World Heritage-listed Blue Mountains.

Between stops, you settle into your private cabin, watch the landscape change from the lounge and enjoy regionally inspired menus with Australian wines, beers and spirits included throughout. Your off-train experiences are part of the fare too, so the only decisions left are which excursion to choose and when to raise a glass.

Highlights

- Cross Australia from the Indian Ocean to the Pacific in 5 days
- Ride the world's longest stretch of straight railway track across the Nullarbor
- See the vast Super Pit gold mine in Kalgoorlie
- Guided stargazing under unpolluted outback skies at Cook
- Cellar dinner with the 'Firing of the Barrel' at Seppeltsfield in the Barossa Valley
- Choose your adventure in Broken Hill, Australia's first heritage-listed city
- Skyway, cableway, bushwalk or high tea in the Blue Mountains
- All meals, drinks and off-train experiences included

Your Cabin

Gold Single Cabin - A private cabin for one, with a seat by day that converts to a bed at night. Showers and toilets are shared and located at the end of the carriage. Meals are served in the Gold restaurant car with drinks included.

Gold Twin Cabin - A private cabin with a three-seat lounge by day that converts to upper and lower with meals in the Gold restaurant car.

Gold Premium Twin Cabin - Newly designed cabins finished in walnut timber and polished brass with Indigenous-print upholstery and a compact private en suite. Guests have exclusive use of the Gold Premium lounge and dining carriage, with four-course dinners and premium Australian drinks included.

Platinum Twin Cabin - Nearly twice the size of a Gold cabin, with a choice of double or twin beds, a lounge set-up by day and windows on both sides of the train. The en suite has a separate shower, and meals are served in the exclusive Platinum Club carriage, including five-course dinners and Champagne.

Aurora Suite - Around double the size of a Platinum cabin, with a separate bedroom, fixed bed, en suite and wardrobe. Includes butler service, a personalised in-suite bar, in-suite dining, Platinum Club access and exclusive off-train experiences.

Australis Suite - The largest accommodation on board, about three times the size of a Platinum cabin, with a separate bedroom, en suite with double vanity, writing desk and wardrobe. Includes butler service, a private chauffeur to and from the train, Platinum Club access and exclusive off-train experiences.

DAY BY DAY

Your Itinerary

DAY 1

PERTH

Your journey begins in Perth with a welcome gathering alongside your fellow travellers before you board the Indian Pacific. As the sun sinks in the west, the train sets off on its crossing from one ocean to the other. Settle into your cabin, get to know your companions in the lounge and enjoy your first dinner on board. (D)

KALGOORLIE

Watch the sun come up over the outback before the train pulls into Kalgoorlie, the largest outback town in Australia. Choose your morning off-train experience to discover the town's gold-rush past and its working present, including the enormous Super Pit mine, with morning refreshments included. Back on board by mid-morning for brunch, spend a relaxed afternoon watching the Nullarbor Plain roll by as the train crosses into South Australia and a new time zone.

Late in the evening you step off at Cook, a railway outpost that was once busy and is now home to only a handful of people. Far from any city lights, a guide helps you pick out the Southern Cross and other constellations in an extraordinarily clear night sky. Then it is back on board for a regionally inspired dinner as the train continues east. (B,L,D)

DAY 3

BAROSSA VALLEY

This morning the train travels through the farming heartland of South Australia, with the Flinders Ranges, Spencer Gulf and Adelaide Plains passing your window. Breakfast and lunch are served on board. In the afternoon you leave the train at Long Plains and travel by coach to the Barossa Valley, one of the world's great wine regions.

At the historic Seppeltsfield Estate, an evening dinner is served in the vintage cellar, created especially for Indian Pacific guests, with a food-and-wine pairing and the dramatic 'Firing of the Barrel'. Platinum guests also taste a rare 100-year-old tawny. After dinner you return to the train as it heads east through the night. (B,L,D)

BROKEN HILL

Overnight the train crosses into New South Wales, arriving in Broken Hill, the Silver City and Australia's first heritage-listed city. After breakfast, pick the adventure that suits you: the region's mining story at the Miners' Memorial and Sulphide Street Railway and Historical Museum, an underground tour of the historic Day Dream Mine, a painting session in Pro Hart's original studio, a native-ingredients class and cook-off with a local chef, or a colourful, entertaining tour of the main street led by a larger-than-life outback drag queen.

Rejoin the train for lunch and watch the scenery of regional New South Wales unfold. Tonight is your last dinner on board, a fitting moment to toast your crossing of the continent. (B,L,D)

SYDNEY

Wake in the Blue Mountains, a World Heritage-listed landscape of towering sandstone cliffs and eucalypt-filled valleys. After breakfast you say goodbye to the Indian Pacific and set out on your final off-train experience. At Scenic World, float over the ravines on the Skyway, drop into the rainforest on the Cableway or ride the steepest passenger railway in the world. You can instead join a guided walk along the clifftops, or enjoy high tea at the historic Hydro Majestic Hotel with sweeping mountain views.

Your journey ends aboard a chartered train, hosted by your Indian Pacific crew, into Sydney Central Station. If you would rather arrive earlier, you can stay on the Indian Pacific and reach Sydney before lunch. (B,L)

Tips & Travel Guide

Off-Train Experiences

- Kalgoorlie: The Super Pit - Refreshments and photos beside a giant haul truck at Hannans North Tourist Mine, then a mine-spec bus tour through the Super Pit's workshop areas and viewing platforms to watch the huge mining trucks at work. Enclosed shoes, long sleeves and long pants required; guests must return a zero alcohol breath reading.
- Kalgoorlie: Golden Treasures - An early start at Hannans North Tourist Mine with more than 30 exhibits, gold panning, a game of Two-Up and a close look at the super trucks, plus morning refreshments with a local storyteller and a stop at the Super Pit Lookout.
- Kalgoorlie: Curious Kalgoorlie - A drive around town with a stop at the Super Pit Lookout, time on the main street, a visit to the Museum of the Goldfields (including a climb of the original drilling derrick), light refreshments and a local timber workshop.
- Kalgoorlie: Kalgoorlie Golden Horizons - A scenic flight over the Super Pit and town, followed by morning tea at the historic Paddy Hannan's Mine. Reserved for Aurora and Australis Suite guests. (optional upgrade at extra cost)
- Cook: Nullarbor Stargazing - A late-evening stop at the near-deserted railway town of Cook, where a guide points out the Southern Cross and other constellations under skies free of light pollution, with a nightcap by the bonfire.
- Barossa Valley: Barossa Valley Dining Experience - A coach transfer from Long Plains to Seppeltsfield Estate for a cellar dinner of regional produce paired with local wines, with the traditional 'Firing of the Barrel'. Platinum guests also taste a 100-year-old tawny.
- Barossa Valley: Barossa Valley Reserve Experience - A premium transfer to a boutique Barossa winery for a private after-hours guided tasting with regional bites, before joining the Seppeltsfield dinner and a tasting from its centennial collection. Reserved for Aurora and Australis Suite guests. (optional upgrade at extra cost)
- Broken Hill: Silver City Highlights - An outback tour taking in the sandstone sculptures of the Living Desert State Park with a taste of native tea and wattleseed, the Sulphide Street Railway and Historical Museum and the Line of Lode Miners' Memorial with its panoramic views.
- Broken Hill: Paint Like a Pro - A relaxed painting session with a drink in Pro Hart's original studio, guided by a member of the artist's family, plus time to browse his outback-inspired works across the gallery's floors.
- Broken Hill: Historic Day Dream Mine - Don a helmet and headlamp to explore 1880s silver-mine tunnels near Silverton, see a replica miner's hut and enjoy freshly baked scones. Steep steps and low ceilings underground; not suited to guests uncomfortable in confined spaces.
- Broken Hill: Taste of the Outback - A bush-food session with a local chef at the Living Desert State Park, learning to identify native plants, followed by native-spiced mocktails and tastings at a local restaurant.
- Broken Hill: Queen of the Outback Town Tour - A lively, desert-drag-inspired walking and bus tour mixing local history with entertainment, stopping at the Line of Lode Memorial and finishing with morning tea, bingo, trivia and a show at a local brewery. Around 2 km of walking.
- Blue Mountains: Scenic World - Ride the glass-floored Skyway high above the ravines, descend into the forest on the charter train to Sydney.

- Blue Mountains: Blue Mountains Discovery Trail - A guided walk of about 3 km along the Prince Henry Cliff path to Echo Point and the Three Sisters, followed by lunch at the Hydro Majestic Hotel and the charter train to Sydney. Enclosed walking shoes required.
- Blue Mountains: High Tea in the Blue Mountains - A drive through Mount Victoria to Govetts Leap Lookout, a guided history tour of the Hydro Majestic Hotel and high tea with panoramic valley views, before the charter train to Sydney.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Terms & Conditions

Fares for this journey are sold in different fare types, and the payment, change and cancellation conditions depend on the fare type booked. Your Palace Tours specialist will confirm the exact conditions of your fare in writing before you book.

- Flexible fare: paid in full at booking; fully refundable for cancellations received at least 24 hours before departure; date changes are free of charge.
- Everyday fare: a deposit of AUD 1,000 per guest (Gold and Gold Premium cabins) or AUD 1,500 per guest (Platinum) is due at booking, with the balance due 45 days before departure. Cancellations more than 45 days before departure forfeit the deposit amount; within 45 days of departure the full fare is charged. Date changes are permitted up to 45 days before departure for a fee of AUD 100 per guest.
- Advance Purchase fare: paid in full at booking. If booked more than 60 days before departure, a full refund is available for cancellations made within 14 days of the booking confirmation; after that the fare is non-refundable. Date changes are permitted up to 90 days before departure for a fee of AUD 250 per guest.

Suite fares carry their own deposit and cancellation conditions, which we will confirm with your quote. Amended dates must fall within 12 months of the original departure and are subject to availability and any fare difference. Timetables and departure dates are subject to change.

COMMON QUESTIONS

Frequently Asked Questions

How long is The Ghan Central Explorer?

> It is a three-day, two-night journey. The train leaves Adelaide Parklands Terminal at 15.00 on day 1 and your journey ends in Alice Springs on day 3, after the morning stop at Marla and a guided afternoon experience in Alice Springs.

Where does the train stop between Adelaide and Alice Springs?

> The train stops at Long Plains for the Clare Valley dinner on day 1, Port Augusta for the full-day Flinders Ranges experience on day 2, and Marla for a desert sunrise on day 3 before arriving in Alice Springs. Each stop has an included guided experience off the train.

How does the Central Explorer relate to the full Ghan?

> It is the first half of The Ghan from Adelaide to Darwin, on the same train with the same cabins and service. The second half, from Alice Springs to Darwin, is sold as The Ghan Territory North Explorer.

Can I stop over in the Red Centre and continue to Darwin later?

> Yes. A popular plan is the Central Explorer to Alice Springs, a few nights at Uluru and in the Red Centre, then The Ghan Territory North Explorer from Alice Springs to Darwin. Northbound trains leave Alice Springs on Mondays (March to November) and Thursdays (April to October), and we can arrange your hotels, flights to Uluru and Red Centre touring between the two trains.

What is included in the fare?

> Two nights in your chosen cabin, all meals on board, Australian wines, beers, base spirits and soft drinks, the Clare Valley dinner, the Flinders Ranges day with lunch, the Marla sunrise stop and a choice of guided experiences in Alice Springs. Gold Premium and Platinum include premium drinks.

What is not included?

> Flights to Adelaide and from Alice Springs, hotel nights before or after the journey (we can arrange them), station transfers in Adelaide for Gold and Gold Premium guests, the optional Mt Gillen helicopter flight, travel insurance and personal expenses.

Which cabins are available on this journey?

> Gold Single, Gold Twin, Gold Premium Twin and Platinum Twin cabins. Gold Single cabins share shower and toilet facilities at the end of the carriage; the other cabins have their own en suite. The Aurora and Australis Suites are sold only on the full four-day Ghan from Adelaide to Darwin. Gold Suite, Gold Premium Suite and Platinum Double cabins are also sold; details are confirmed at booking.

What can I do in Alice Springs?

> You choose one included afternoon experience: a town tour with the School of the Air and the Reptile Centre, the Alice Springs Desert Park, a guided walk at Simpsons Gap or Standley Chasm with an Arrernte guide, or a mountain-bike ride on the Ilentye Trail. A helicopter flight over Mt Gillen can be booked instead at extra cost.

What is the difference between Advance Purchase, Saver, Everyday and Flexible fares?

> There are four fare types. Advance Purchase is the early-bird fare and the lowest price, but it must be booked and paid in full at least 6 months before departure, and it closes automatically once that deadline has passed. It is the least flexible fare: a full refund is available only for cancellations made within 14 days of the booking confirmation, and date changes are permitted up to 90 days before departure for a fee of AUD 250 per guest. Saver is a discounted fare with limited availability that sits between Advance Purchase and Everyday; its conditions are confirmed at booking. Everyday fares need a deposit at booking (AUD 1,000 per guest in Gold and Gold Premium, AUD 1,500 in Platinum), with the balance due 45 days before departure. Flexible fares are paid in full at booking, are fully refundable for cancellations at least 24 hours before departure and allow free date changes.
> Not every fare type is offered in every cabin or on every date - for example, Advance Purchase is not sold in Platinum. We confirm the exact conditions of your fare in writing before you book.

How much luggage can I bring?

> The checked luggage allowance is 60 kg per guest in Gold, 75 kg in Gold Premium and 90 kg in Platinum. Keep a small overnight bag with you in the cabin, as space is limited, particularly in the Gold cabins.

When does the Central Explorer run in 2027?

> It departs Adelaide on Saturdays from March to November and on Tuesdays from April to October. The exact dates with fares by cabin are listed on this page.

How do I ask a question or book The Ghan Central Explorer?

> Choose a date and cabin on this page to book, or email travel@palacetours.com, call 786-408-0610, or message us on WhatsApp at https://wa.me/17864080610, where a travel specialist or our AI assistant will answer. We can also add hotels and flights.

How long is The Ghan Territory North Explorer?

> It is a two-day, one-night journey. You board in Alice Springs on day 1, stop at Katherine on the morning of day 2 and arrive in Darwin that evening, at 17.30 on Tuesday arrivals or 19.50 on Friday arrivals.

Where do I board the train?

> You join The Ghan in Alice Springs. The train is already on its way from Adelaide, and your boarding time in Alice Springs is confirmed with your booking.

How does the Territory North Explorer relate to the full Ghan?

> It is the second half of The Ghan from Adelaide to Darwin, on the same train with the same cabins and service. The first half, from Adelaide to Alice Springs, is sold as The Ghan Central Explorer.

Can I combine this with Uluru and the Central Explorer?

> Yes. Travel from Adelaide on The Ghan Central Explorer, spend a few nights at Uluru and in the Red Centre, then continue to Darwin on the Territory North Explorer. We can arrange your hotels, flights to Uluru and Red Centre touring between the two trains.

Do we see Nitmiluk Gorge at Katherine?

> Most guests take the included boat cruise through Nitmiluk Gorge on the morning of day 2, with a guide explaining its natural history and its importance to the Jawoyn people. Other Katherine experiences are offered depending on the season, and a helicopter flight can be added at extra cost.

When does the Territory North Explorer run in 2027?

> It leaves Alice Springs on Mondays from March to November and on Thursdays from April to October. The exact dates with fares by cabin are listed on this page.

How do I ask a question or book The Ghan Territory North Explorer?

> Choose a date and cabin on this page to book, or email travel@palacetours.com, call 786-408-0610, or message us on WhatsApp at https://wa.me/17864080610, where a travel specialist or our AI assistant will answer. We can also add hotels and flights.

How long is The Ghan Territory South Explorer?

> It is a two-day, one-night journey. The train leaves Darwin at 10.00 on Wednesdays or 09.00 on Saturdays, stops at Katherine in the afternoon and arrives in Alice Springs the next day, where your journey ends.

When does it run?

> The Territory South Explorer is offered only in November 2026 and from March to May 2027. Departures are on Wednesdays, with Saturday departures added from April. The exact dates with fares by cabin are listed on this page.

How does it relate to The Ghan Expedition?

> It is the first half of The Ghan Expedition from Darwin to Adelaide, on the same train with the same cabins and service. The second half, from Alice Springs to Adelaide, is sold as The Ghan Southern Wanderer.

Can I stop over in Alice Springs and at Uluru?

> Yes. Ride the Territory South Explorer to Alice Springs, spend a few nights in the Red Centre and at Uluru, then continue to Adelaide on The Ghan Southern Wanderer. We can arrange your hotels, flights to Uluru and Red Centre touring between the two trains.

What can I do at Katherine?

> Most guests take the included Nitmiluk Gorge cruise with Jawoyn guides. Depending on the season you can instead choose the Rock Art Cruise, the Katherine Outback Experience or Cutta Cutta Caves, and a helicopter flight over the gorges can be booked at extra cost.

How do I ask a question or book The Ghan Territory South Explorer?

> Choose a date and cabin on this page to book, or email travel@palacetours.com, call 786-408-0610, or message us on WhatsApp at https://wa.me/17864080610, where a travel specialist or our AI assistant will answer. We can also add hotels and flights.

How long is The Ghan Southern Wanderer?

> It is a three-day, two-night journey. You board in Alice Springs late on day 1 (21.45 or 22.15), spend day 2 at Manguri and Coober Pedy, and arrive in Adelaide at 10.30 or 10.50 on day 3.

Can I combine it with Uluru and the Territory South Explorer?

> Yes. Travel from Darwin on The Ghan Territory South Explorer, spend a few nights in Alice Springs and at Uluru, then board the Southern Wanderer for Adelaide. We can arrange your hotels, flights to Uluru and Red Centre touring between the two trains.

Is the Alice Springs day included?

> You board at the end of the Expedition's full day in Alice Springs. Whether any Alice Springs experiences or the evening program are included for guests joining in Alice Springs is confirmed at booking; we can also arrange your own touring in Alice Springs that day.

What can I do in Coober Pedy?

> Choose from Explore Coober Pedy with the underground church and Umoona opal mine, Discover the Breakaways among the colourful mesas, or the shorter Opal Experience. All include opal mining and lunch underground. A Painted Hills and Lake Eyre scenic flight can be booked instead at extra cost.

How do I ask a question or book The Ghan Southern Wanderer?

> Choose a date and cabin on this page to book, or email travel@palacetours.com, call 786-408-0610, or message us on WhatsApp at https://wa.me/17864080610, where a travel specialist or our AI assistant will answer. We can also add hotels and flights.

How long is Harbour to Vineyards?

> It is a two-day, one-night journey. The Indian Pacific leaves Sydney at 15.05 on Wednesday, stops in Broken Hill on Thursday morning and arrives in Adelaide at 16.25 on Thursday, followed by an included food and wine experience.

Where does the train stop between Sydney and Adelaide?

> You pass through the Blue Mountains on the first afternoon, step off in Broken Hill on the morning of day 2, then finish with a choice of experiences in and around Adelaide.

How does Harbour to Vineyards relate to the full Indian Pacific?

> It is the first part of the Indian Pacific's Coast to Coast journey from Sydney to Perth, on the same train with the same cabins and service. The Adelaide to Perth section is sold as Under the Milky Way.

Can I stop over in Adelaide and continue to Perth?

> Yes. Ride Harbour to Vineyards to Adelaide, spend time in the city, the Barossa or Kangaroo Island, then continue to Perth on Under the Milky Way, which leaves Adelaide on Thursday evenings. We can arrange your hotels and touring in Adelaide between the two trains.

What can I do in Broken Hill?

> Choose a guided heritage walking tour of the Silver City finishing with morning tea at the historic Trades Hall, or Broken Hill On Show, a morning of outback cooking, entertainment and a scenic coach tour of the town.

What happens when we arrive in Adelaide?

> After the 16.25 arrival you choose an included experience: a McLaren Vale tasting and clifftop dinner (not offered in winter), a vineyard tasting and dinner in Hahndorf in the Adelaide Hills, the Icons of Adelaide brewery and city tour, or Central Market After Dark. Where your experience finishes in Adelaide is confirmed at booking.

How do I ask a question or book Harbour to Vineyards?

> Choose a date and cabin on this page to book, or email travel@palacetours.com, call 786-408-0610, or message us on WhatsApp at https://wa.me/17864080610, where a travel specialist or our AI assistant will answer. We can also add hotels and flights.

How long is Under the Milky Way?

> It is a three-day, two-night journey. The Indian Pacific leaves Adelaide at 21.40 on Thursday, crosses the Nullarbor on Friday and arrives in Perth at 14.45 on Saturday.

Why does the train leave Adelaide so late?

> The 21.40 departure follows the Indian Pacific's evening in Adelaide on its way from Sydney. It gives you the whole day in Adelaide before boarding, and you wake up on day 2 heading west towards the Nullarbor.

What happens on the Nullarbor?

> The train follows the world's longest straight stretch of railway, stops in the afternoon at the tiny settlement of Cook and pauses in the evening for an outback experience: dinner under the stars from September to May, or drinks and canapes around a bonfire in winter.

How does Under the Milky Way relate to the full Indian Pacific?

> It is the Adelaide to Perth section of the Indian Pacific's Coast to Coast journey from Sydney, on the same train with the same cabins and service. The Sydney to Adelaide section is sold as Harbour to Vineyards.

Can I combine this with Harbour to Vineyards and a stay in Adelaide?

> Yes. Travel from Sydney to Adelaide on Harbour to Vineyards, spend a few days in Adelaide, the Barossa or the Adelaide Hills, then board Under the Milky Way on a later Thursday. We can arrange your hotels and touring in Adelaide between the two trains.

How do I ask a question or book Under the Milky Way?

> Choose a date and cabin on this page to book, or email travel@palacetours.com, call 786-408-0610, or message us on WhatsApp at https://wa.me/17864080610, where a travel specialist or our AI assistant will answer. We can also add hotels and flights.

How long is the Nullarbor Crossing?

> It is a three-day, two-night journey. The Indian Pacific leaves Perth at 17.55 on Saturday, stops in Kalgoorlie on Sunday morning and at Cook that evening, and arrives in Adelaide at 17.15 on Monday after a Barossa Valley experience.

What can I do in Kalgoorlie?

> Choose a mine-spec bus tour inside the Super Pit (enclosed shoes, long sleeves and long pants, and a zero alcohol breath reading are required), Golden Treasures at Hannans North Tourist Mine with gold panning and Two-Up, or Curious Kalgoorlie with the Super Pit Lookout and the Museum of the Goldfields.

What happens at Cook?

> The train makes a late-evening stop at the near-deserted railway town of Cook, where a guide points out the Southern Cross and other constellations under skies free of light pollution, with a nightcap by the bonfire.

How does the Nullarbor Crossing relate to the full Indian Pacific?

> It is the Perth to Adelaide section of the Indian Pacific's Mighty Nullarbor journey to Sydney, on the same train with the same cabins and service. The Adelaide to Sydney section is sold as New South Wales Wonders.

Can I stop over in Adelaide and continue to Sydney?

> Yes. Ride the Nullarbor Crossing to Adelaide, spend a few days in the city or the wine regions, then continue to Sydney on New South Wales Wonders, which leaves Adelaide on Monday evenings. We can arrange your hotels and touring in Adelaide between the two trains.

How do I ask a question or book the Nullarbor Crossing?

> Choose a date and cabin on this page to book, or email travel@palacetours.com, call 786-408-0610, or message us on WhatsApp at https://wa.me/17864080610, where a travel specialist or our AI assistant will answer. We can also add hotels and flights.

How long is New South Wales Wonders?

> It is a three-day, two-night journey. The Indian Pacific leaves Adelaide at 22.40 on Monday, stops in Broken Hill on Tuesday morning and reaches the Blue Mountains on Wednesday morning, arriving in Sydney at 11.40 or 15.15 depending on the arrival option you choose.

What are the two ways to arrive in Sydney?

> You can step off in the Blue Mountains for a morning experience - Scenic World, the Prince Henry Cliff walk to the Three Sisters, or high tea at the Hydro Majestic Hotel - and then take a private charter train from Katoomba at 13.15, arriving in Sydney at 15.15.
