Overview

On this adventure-filled journey through Bhutan, you can experience marvelous landscapes, the rich Bhutanese culture, and several wonderful temples, including the breathtaking Taktshang "Tiger's Nest" Monastery built on the face of a sheer cliff. In five days, voyage through the country’s important cities, Paro, Thimphu and Punakha. Immerse yourself in the daily life of the Bhutanese as you journey through this land which remains relatively untouched by the outside world.

DAY BY DAY

Your Itinerary

DAY 1

PARO / THIMPHU

You are welcomed upon arrival in Paro by our friendly representative who takes you on a one-hour drive directly to Thimphu. Check in to your hotel, and if time permits, proceed on a sightseeing tour of Thimphu where you may visit the Handicrafts Emporium, Zilikha nunnery and the Dechen Phodrang Monastic School.

DAY 2

PUNAKHA / THIMPHU

This morning, enjoy a visit to the School of Arts and Crafts, Folk Heritage Museum and the 12th century Changagkha Temple. Later, drive to Punakha over the scenic Dochula Pass, which reaches an elevation of 3,200 meters. If the weather is clear, you may be able to see a marvelous panoramic view of the entire Himalayan mountain range toward the northern border. Enjoy your lunch en route at Dochula Cafeteria. This afternoon, hike to Chimi Lhakhang, the beautiful temple of fertility, and later this evening visit the serene Punakha Dzong fortress, the second-oldest dzong in Bhutan.

DAY 3

PARO / PUNAKHA

Take a morning drive towards the north end of the valley, and enjoy a refreshing hike to Khamsung Yulley Namgyal Choling Monastery on the ridge of the hill. Pause to enjoy the view of the long narrow valley. After your hike back from the monastery, visit the souvenir making center supported by the Youth Development Fund in Bhutan, and then return to Paro.

DAY 4

PARO

Early this morning, prepare yourself for a 2-hour hike to the famous Taktshang "Tiger's Nest" monastery which hangs on a cliff 700 meters from the valley floor. Its nickname comes from the legend that Padmasambhava (Guru Rinpoche) flew there on the back of a tiger. Take some time to visit the temples within the monastery, and then head back to town to visit the National Museum and Paro Dzong. You may also have the opportunity to visit Kichu Temple and the ruins of Drugyel Dzong. Dinner is served at the Red Rice Restaurant or somewhere similar.

DAY 5

PARO

Check out of your hotel this morning after breakfast and prepare for your departure flight back home. Transfer to the airport, where your tour guide bids you a fond farewell.

COMMON QUESTIONS

Frequently Asked Questions

How long is Bhutan: A Cultural Adventure and which towns does it visit?

> Bhutan: A Cultural Adventure is a 5-day, 4-night tour. You arrive in Paro, drive to Thimphu, cross the Dochula Pass to the Punakha valley, return to Paro for the hike to Tiger's Nest Monastery, and fly out of Paro on Day 5.

What is Tiger's Nest Monastery and how hard is the hike?

> Taktshang, the Tiger's Nest, is a monastery clinging to a cliff about 700 metres above the Paro valley floor. Legend says Guru Rinpoche flew there on the back of a tiger. The hike on Day 4 takes around 2 hours each way on a steady uphill trail, so a reasonable level of fitness is needed.

What is included in the Bhutan cultural tour price?

> The price includes 4 nights in standard hotels or guest houses approved by the Tourism Council, all meals, local drinks and refreshments wherever possible, a full-time English-speaking guide, admission to the listed sites, all land transport by SUV, minibus or bus depending on group size, government taxes and royalties, the Bhutan visa fee and the tourism development fund.

Is the Bhutan visa fee included on this tour?

> Yes. The Bhutan visa fee and the tourism development fund are both included in the tour price. After booking, you are sent a visa application form to complete, and the visa is processed ahead of your arrival in Paro.

What is not included in Bhutan: A Cultural Adventure?

> The price does not include domestic or international airfare, airport departure taxes, gratuities for your guide, driver and hotel staff, travel insurance, or anything not specifically listed as included. Flights into and out of Paro are booked separately.

Are all meals included on the Bhutan tour?

> Yes, all meals are included throughout the tour, together with local drinks and refreshments wherever possible. Lunch on Day 2 is taken at the Dochula cafeteria on the pass, and dinner on Day 4 is at the Red Rice Restaurant or a similar venue in Paro.

What will I see in Thimphu?

> On arrival, time permitting, you visit the Handicrafts Emporium, Zilikha nunnery and the Dechen Phodrang Monastic School. On Day 2 you see the School of Arts and Crafts, the Folk Heritage Museum and the 12th-century Changangkha Temple before driving on to Punakha.

What is the Dochula Pass?

> The Dochula Pass lies at about 3,200 metres on the road from Thimphu to Punakha. On a clear day it offers a panoramic view of the Himalayan range along Bhutan's northern border. You stop there for lunch on Day 2 of the tour.

What are the highlights of the Punakha valley on this tour?

> In Punakha you hike to Chimi Lhakhang, the temple of fertility, and visit Punakha Dzong, the second-oldest dzong in Bhutan. On Day 3 there is a morning hike to Khamsum Yulley Namgyal Choling Monastery on a ridge above the long narrow valley, followed by a visit to a youth-supported souvenir centre.

What is visited in Paro besides Tiger's Nest?

> After the Tiger's Nest hike, you visit the National Museum and Paro Dzong, and you may also see Kichu Temple, one of the oldest temples in Bhutan, and the ruins of Drugyel Dzong. The day ends with dinner in Paro.

What kind of hotels are used on the Bhutan cultural tour?

> The tour is offered in Silver class, using standard hotels or guest houses approved by the Tourism Council of Bhutan on a double room basis. Five-star hotels can be arranged in Paro and Thimphu at an additional cost; contact us for details.

Do prices change during Bhutan's festivals?

> Yes. Supplemental charges may apply during all Bhutan festivals, when demand for hotels and guides is highest. If your dates coincide with a festival, our travel specialists will confirm any supplement before you book.

How do I get to Bhutan for this tour?

> The tour starts and ends at Paro, Bhutan's international airport, where our representative meets you and drives you about one hour to Thimphu. Flights to Paro are not included; our travel specialists can advise on connections that fit the tour dates.

Are there scheduled departure dates for Bhutan: A Cultural Adventure?

> No departure dates are listed on this page right now. The tour is arranged for your chosen dates, subject to hotel and flight availability, so contact us with your preferred travel window and we will confirm the fare.

How much deposit is required for the Bhutan tour?

> A 25% deposit is required to confirm your booking, and the balance is due 65 days before departure. If you book within 65 days of travel, full payment is taken at booking so the visa can be processed in time.

Can children travel on the Bhutan cultural tour?

> Yes. Child rates are based on age at departure, with a band for children under 5 and another for children aged 5 to 11. Keep in mind that the Tiger's Nest hike is a 2-hour climb each way, which suits active older children best.

Can a solo traveller book Bhutan: A Cultural Adventure?

> Yes. The tour is priced per person sharing a double room, and single rooms are available on request with a supplement. Contact us with your dates and we will quote the single fare.

How much walking and hiking is involved on this Bhutan tour?

> There are three hikes: a walk to Chimi Lhakhang in Punakha, a hike to Khamsum Yulley Monastery, and the 2-hour climb to Tiger's Nest. Much of the tour is at altitude, so a moderate level of fitness is recommended and you can take the hikes at your own pace with your guide.

When is a good time of year to visit Bhutan?

> Spring and autumn usually bring the clearest skies for Himalayan views from the Dochula Pass and comfortable hiking to Tiger's Nest. Summer is the monsoon season and winter is cold at higher elevations. Festival dates attract crowds and may carry supplements, so ask us about your preferred month.

How do I ask a question or book Bhutan: A Cultural Adventure?

> Email travel@palacetours.com, call 786-408-0610, or message us on WhatsApp at https://wa.me/17864080610, where a travel specialist or our AI assistant will reply. When departures appear on this page they can be booked directly online; otherwise send us your dates and we will arrange the tour and your visa paperwork.
