Indian Pacific: New South Wales Wonders - Adelaide to Sydney

2 Nights • Luxury Experience

www.palacetours.com travel@palacetours.com 786-408-0610

Overview

New South Wales Wonders is the eastern half of the Indian Pacific's journey from Perth to Sydney, a three-day, two-night ride from Adelaide to the Pacific. The train leaves Adelaide at 22.40 on Monday, so you can enjoy a day in the city before boarding and waking up on the way to the outback.

On Tuesday morning you step off in Broken Hill, Australia's first heritage-listed city, to choose your adventure - from the sculptures of the Living Desert and Pro Hart's studio to the underground tunnels of the Day Dream Mine. On Wednesday the train reaches the World Heritage-listed Blue Mountains at 08.00, and you choose your arrival into Sydney: a morning experience among the sandstone cliffs and eucalypt valleys followed by a private charter train arriving at 15.15, or stay aboard the Indian Pacific for an 11.40 arrival.

Meals, Australian wines, beers and spirits and your off-train experiences are all included. This journey is the second part of the Indian Pacific from Perth to Sydney: arrive in Adelaide on the Nullarbor Crossing, stay a few days, then continue east, and we can arrange your hotels and touring in Adelaide between the two trains.

Highlights

- Adelaide to Sydney in three days aboard the Indian Pacific
- Choose your adventure in Broken Hill, Australia's first heritage-listed city
- Skyway, cableway, bushwalk or high tea in the Blue Mountains
- Choose your arrival into Sydney - by private charter train after a Blue Mountains morning, or earlier on the Indian Pacific
- All meals, drinks and off-train experiences included

Your Cabin

Gold Single Cabin - A compact private sleeper for solo travellers with a bed that converts to a seat by day. Shower and toilet facilities are shared, located at the end of the carriage. Includes all meals, beverages and Off Train Experiences.

Gold Twin Cabin - Our most popular cabin, with a private en suite and upper and lower berths that convert into a three-seat lounge by day. Includes all-inclusive dining in the restaurant carriage, Australian wines, beers and spirits, and all Off Train Experiences.

Gold Premium Twin Cabin - Newly designed contemporary cabins inspired by the colours of the outback, with walnut timber, brass details and Indigenous-print upholstery. A private compact en suite, exclusive lounge and dining carriages, four-course dinners and premium beverages are included.

Platinum Twin Cabin - Almost twice the size of a Gold cabin, with a lounge by day and double or twin beds by night, a full en suite, panoramic windows on both sides and access to the exclusive Platinum Club, where five-course dinners are served.

Gold Suite, Gold Premium Suite and Platinum Double Cabin - Gold Suite and Gold Premium Suite options are also sold in Gold and Gold Premium service, along with the Platinum Double Cabin, a Platinum cabin with a double bed instead of twin beds and the same Platinum Club inclusions. Exact layouts and the departures that offer them are confirmed at booking.

The Aurora and Australis Suites are not sold on this journey; they are available on the full Indian Pacific crossing between Sydney and Perth.

Tips & Travel Guide

Off-Train Experiences

- Broken Hill: Silver City Highlights - An outback tour taking in the sandstone sculptures of the Living Desert State Park with a taste of native tea and wattleseed, the Sulphide Street Railway and Historical Museum and the Line of Lode Miners' Memorial with its panoramic views.
- Broken Hill: Paint Like a Pro - A relaxed painting session with a drink in Pro Hart's original studio, guided by a member of the artist's family, plus time to browse his outback-inspired works across the gallery's floors.
- Broken Hill: Historic Day Dream Mine - Don a helmet and headlamp to explore 1880s silver-mine tunnels near Silverton, see a replica miner's hut and enjoy freshly baked scones. Steep steps and low ceilings underground; not suited to guests uncomfortable in confined spaces.
- Broken Hill: Taste of the Outback - A bush-food session with a local chef at the Living Desert State Park, learning to identify native plants, followed by native-spiced mocktails and tastings at a local restaurant.
- Broken Hill: Queen of the Outback Town Tour - A lively, desert-drag-inspired walking and bus tour mixing local history with entertainment, stopping at the Line of Lode Memorial and finishing with morning tea, bingo, trivia and a show at a local brewery. Around 2 km of walking.
- Blue Mountains: Scenic World - Ride the glass-floored Skyway high above the ravines, descend into the forest on the Cableway and take the world's steepest passenger railway, followed by lunch at the Hydro Majestic Hotel and the private charter train to Sydney.
- Blue Mountains: Blue Mountains Discovery Trail - A guided walk of about 3 km along the Prince Henry Cliff path to Echo Point and the Three Sisters, followed by lunch at the Hydro Majestic Hotel and the private charter train to Sydney. Enclosed walking shoes required.
- Blue Mountains: High Tea in the Blue Mountains - A drive through Mount Victoria to Govetts Leap Lookout, a guided history tour of the Hydro Majestic Hotel and high tea with panoramic valley views, before the private charter train to Sydney.
- Blue Mountains: Stay on board - Prefer an earlier arrival? Remain on the Indian Pacific, which leaves the Blue Mountains at 08.55 and arrives in Sydney at 11.40.

Fares for this journey are sold in different fare types, and the payment, change and cancellation conditions depend on the fare type booked. Your Palace Tours specialist will confirm the exact conditions of your fare in writing before you book.

- Flexible fare: paid in full at booking; fully refundable for cancellations received at least 24 hours before departure; date changes are free of charge.
- Everyday fare: a deposit of AUD 1,000 per guest (Gold and Gold Premium cabins) or AUD 1,500 per guest (Platinum) is due at booking, with the balance due 45 days before departure. - Advance Purchase fare: paid in full at booking. If booked more than 60 days before departure, a full refund is available for cancellations made within 14 days of the booking confirmation; after that the fare is non-refundable. Date changes are permitted up to 90 days before departure for a fee of AUD 250 per guest.

Suite fares carry their own deposit and cancellation conditions, which we will confirm with your quote. Amended dates must fall within 12 months of the original departure and are subject to availability and any fare difference. Timetables and departure dates are subject to change.

COMMON QUESTIONS

Frequently Asked Questions

How long is New South Wales Wonders?

> It is a three-day, two-night journey. The Indian Pacific leaves Adelaide at 22.40 on Monday, stops in Broken Hill on Tuesday morning and reaches the Blue Mountains on Wednesday morning, arriving in Sydney at 11.40 or 15.15 depending on the arrival option you choose.

What are the two ways to arrive in Sydney?

> You can step off in the Blue Mountains for a morning experience - Scenic World, the Prince Henry Cliff walk to the Three Sisters, or high tea at the Hydro Majestic Hotel - and then take a private charter train from Katoomba at 13.15, arriving in Sydney at 15.15. Or you can stay on the Indian Pacific, which leaves the Blue Mountains at 08.55 and arrives in Sydney at 11.40.

What can I do in Broken Hill?

> Choose from Silver City Highlights with the Living Desert sculptures, a painting session in Pro Hart's original studio, the underground Day Dream Mine, a bush-food session with a local chef, or the Queen of the Outback town tour.

How does New South Wales Wonders relate to the full Indian Pacific?

> It is the Adelaide to Sydney section of the Indian Pacific's Mighty Nullarbor journey from Perth, on the same train with the same cabins and service. The Perth to Adelaide section is sold as the Nullarbor Crossing.

Can I combine this with the Nullarbor Crossing and a stay in Adelaide?

> Yes. Travel from Perth to Adelaide on the Nullarbor Crossing, spend a few days in Adelaide or the wine regions, then board New South Wales Wonders on a later Monday. We can arrange your hotels and touring in Adelaide between the two trains.

What is included in the fare?

> Two nights in your chosen cabin, all meals on board, Australian wines, beers, spirits and soft drinks, the off-train experiences in Broken Hill and the Blue Mountains, and the hosted charter train from the Blue Mountains to Sydney if you choose that option.

What is not included?

> Flights to Adelaide or from Sydney, hotel nights before or after the journey (we can arrange them), station transfers for Gold and Gold Premium guests, travel insurance and personal expenses.

Which cabins are available on this journey?

Gold Single, Gold Twin, Gold Premium Twin and Platinum Twin cabins. Gold Single cabins share shower and toilet facilities at the end of the carriage; the other cabins have their own en suite. The Aurora and Australis Suites are sold on the full Perth to Sydney crossing. Gold Suite, Gold Premium Suite and Platinum Double cabins are also sold; details are confirmed at booking.

What is the difference between Advance Purchase, Saver, Everyday and Flexible fares?

There are four fare types. Advance Purchase is the early-bird fare and the lowest price, but it must be booked and paid in full at least 6 months before departure, and it closes automatically once that deadline has passed. It is the least flexible fare: a full refund is available only for cancellations made within 14 days of the booking confirmation, and date changes are permitted up to 90 days before departure for a fee of AUD 250 per guest. Saver is a discounted fare with limited availability that sits between Advance Purchase and Everyday; its conditions are confirmed at booking. Everyday fares need a deposit at booking (AUD 1,000 per guest in Gold and Gold Premium, AUD 1,500 in Platinum), with the balance due 45 days before departure. Flexible fares are paid in full at booking, are fully refundable for cancellations at least 24 hours before departure and allow free date changes.
Not every fare type is offered in every cabin or on every date - for example, Advance Purchase is not sold in Platinum. We confirm the exact conditions of your fare in writing before you book.

How much luggage can I bring?

The checked luggage allowance is 60 kg per guest in Gold, 75 kg in Gold Premium and 90 kg in Platinum. Keep a small overnight bag with you in the cabin, as space is limited, particularly in the Gold cabins.
