Overview

Set off on a five-day, four-night one way journey from Rome to Istanbul aboard La Dolce Vita Orient Express.

Glide through stops in Venice's luminous canals, wander Budapest's elegant streets, and feel the quiet magic of the Carpathians in Braşov and Sinaia. Then, enter the enchanting, timeless allure of Istanbul, city of domes, markets, and endless stories, reaching the legendary eastern terminus that made the Orient Express a legend.

Your Itinerary

DAY 1

ROME

Your journey begins with a private transfer from your hotel or the airport to the La Dolce Vita lounge at Rome Ostiense, which opens three hours before departure, offering a calm, refined space to relax and prepare for your journey. In the evening, the train departs from Rome, and you settle into your private cabin, letting the Italian countryside drift past your window. Dinner is served in the Restaurant Car, crafted by three-Michelin-starred Chef Heinz Beck, offering a first taste of the culinary excellence to come.

After dinner, enjoy live music performed by a pianist and vocalist, setting a warm, elegant atmosphere as the train glides toward Venice.

DAY 2

VENICE

In the morning of the second day, the train arrives in Venice, where the city's shimmering canals, ornate palaces, and narrow alleys welcome you. Local assistants greet you on the platform and accompany you by private water taxi to the heart of the city. Spend the day wandering freely or choose from curated experiences, each designed to reveal Venice's history, art, and hidden corners.

In the late afternoon, return to the station to rejoin the train. Onboard, a dinner in the Restaurant Car, crafted by three-Michelin-starred Chef Heinz Beck, is served as the city's lights fade behind you. Afterward, a pianist and vocalist perform live music, creating a warm, intimate atmosphere as the train continues its journey eastward, carrying you toward new discoveries.

BUDAPEST

Wake to the sight of Budapest on the third day: upon arrival, local assistants welcome you and accompany you by private transfer into the heart of the city. Spend the day exploring its elegant streets, iconic bridges, and hidden squares, or choose from curated experiences designed to reveal the city's art, history, and cultural treasures.

In the late afternoon, return to the train, where a dinner in the Restaurant Car, crafted by three-Michelin-starred Chef Heinz Beck, awaits. As the train continues eastward, live music performed by a pianist and vocalist fills the carriage, creating an intimate, refined atmosphere.

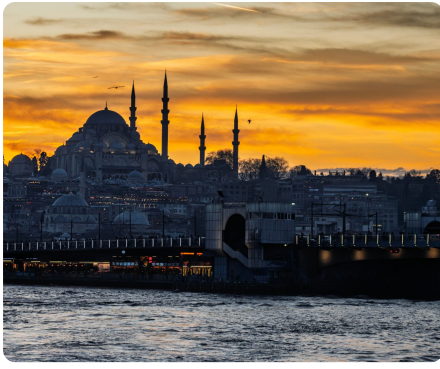

DAY 4

THE CARPATHIANS

The fourth day, the train winds through the Carpathians and arrives in Braşov, a town of medieval streets and charming squares nestled in the mountains. Here, a private guide and a luxury transfer take you into the heart of Transylvania, where legends and history intertwine. Your first stop is the dramatic Bran Castle, famously known as “Dracula’s Castle,” its towering battlements and secret passages whispering tales of myths and intrigue. The journey then winds to Sinaia, revealing the breathtaking Peles Castle, a jewel of Neo-Renaissance architecture set against the majestic Carpathian Mountains—a fairy-tale palace where history meets elegance. oaking in the atmosphere of cobbled streets and centuries-old architecture,

After lunch in the afternoon, return to the train. Onboard, an aperitif precedes a dinner in the Restaurant Car, crafted by three-Michelin-starred Chef Heinz Beck. As a pianist and vocalist perform live music, the train departs eastward, leaving the Carpathians behind and carrying you toward the anticipation of Istanbul.

DAY 5

ISTANBUL

Step into the enchanting world of Casanova's Venice, a journey interwoven with history, intrigue, and undeniable allure.

As you meander through the Calli and Campielli, you will be transported to an era of opulent masquerade balls, where noble ladies and dashing cavaliers, draped in resplendent attire, once glided gracefully to the melodies of Rondò in the grand halls of Venetian palaces along the Canal Grande.

Guided by our expert historians, you will uncover the hidden passages of the Doge's Palace, where the echoes of clandestine affairs and whispered intrigues still reverberate. Passing through concealed doors, you will relive the splendor and shadows of the Serenissima, unveiling the power dynamics and secret machinations that shaped its illustrious past.

This exclusive experience, immersed in a captivating atmosphere, will reveal Venice's most concealed and fascinating corners, enveloping you in its timeless elegance, mystique and charm.
