Overview

The Imperial Danube River Cruise: 7-Night Passau Round-Trip is a 7-night round-trip Danube river cruise aboard the MS Fidelio, from Bavaria through Austria to Hungary along the Danube. Sailing the Danube round-trip from Passau, the itinerary calls at Passau, Durnstein, Vienna, Budapest, Bratislava and Melk. All-inclusive on board with guided shore excursions and an English-speaking cruise manager; fares are per person and shown in US dollars.

Your Itinerary

Day 1 - PASSAU

Destinations: Passau

Board the ship at the Lindau quay beginning at 4:00 PM. Settle into your cabin before joining your fellow travelers for a welcome cocktail. Dinner and overnight on board.

Day 2

Around midday, arrive in Dürnstein, a picturesque village nestled in the heart of the scenic Wachau Valley. From the dock, it's an easy walk through the medieval town gates into the historic center and charming Pranger Square. From here, you'll enjoy beautiful views of the castle ruins, traditionally believed to be where King Richard the Lionheart was once imprisoned. While exploring, be sure to sample the renowned wines produced in the Wachau region. In the afternoon, relax on board as the ship cruises through the breathtaking landscapes of the Wachau Valley. Overnight on board.

Day 3 - VIENNA

Destinations: Vienna, Budapest

After breakfast, join a guided sightseeing tour of Vienna, featuring many of the city's most iconic landmarks, including the Vienna State Opera, City Hall, Parliament, the Burgtheater, and the magnificent Hofburg Imperial Palace. Spend the afternoon exploring the Austrian capital at your leisure. Late in the evening, the ship departs Vienna and begins its overnight cruise toward Budapest. Overnight on board.

Day 4 - BUDAPEST

Destinations: Budapest

Early this afternoon, arrive in Budapest, Hungary's captivating capital. Divided by the majestic Danube River, the historic districts of Buda and Pest combine to create one of Europe's most beautiful cities. Elegant bridges span the river, connecting hilly Buda—with its former Royal Palace and residential neighborhoods—to vibrant Pest, the city's commercial and cultural center. A guided city tour showcases Budapest's highlights, including the Parliament Building, the Opera House, Heroes' Square, the Central Market Hall, the Chain Bridge, and Fisherman's Bastion, where you'll enjoy spectacular panoramic views. Budapest is especially magical after dark, when its illuminated monuments create an unforgettable skyline. Enjoy the evening exploring at your own pace. The ship remains docked overnight.

Destinations: Budapest

The ship remains docked in Budapest through lunchtime. For outstanding views of the Danube and the city's UNESCO World Heritage riverfront, consider riding Tram No. 2, which runs along the river between Margaret Bridge and Petőfi Bridge. Another wonderful option is to unwind in one of Budapest's world-famous thermal baths, such as the historic Széchenyi Thermal Bath or the elegant Gellért Thermal Bath. In the afternoon, the ship departs Budapest, offering more scenic cruising along the Danube.

Day 6 - BRATISLAVA

Destinations: Bratislava

Early this morning, arrive in Bratislava, the capital of Slovakia. A guided tour introduces you to this charming city, with highlights including the Slovak National Theatre, St. Martin's Cathedral, Michael's Gate, the Old Town Hall, and Bratislava Castle, dramatically perched on a hill overlooking the Danube. Overnight on board.

Day 7 - MELK

Destinations: Melk,Passau

This morning, arrive in Melk, a charming riverside town in the heart of the beautiful Wachau Valley. The town is best known for its magnificent Benedictine Abbey, one of Austria's most celebrated Baroque landmarks, which overlooks the Danube from its commanding hilltop setting. After lunch, the ship continues its cruise to Passau. This evening, celebrate your journey at the Captain's Farewell Dinner. Overnight on board.

Day 8 - PASSAU

Destinations: Passau

After breakfast, disembark.
